

Informal letter

Your sister has been asked to write an essay about a celebration. She asks you to provide some information about the celebration. Write an email to your sister giving some information about celebration. Use the guidelines given to write the email. Your email should be about 120 words.

