

ADDRESS BY THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

AWARD OF SCHOLARSHIPS TO 155 STUDENTS

In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

Distinguished guests, esteemed donors, members of the university community, and dear students,

It is with profound joy and gratitude that I stand before you today as we celebrate a significant milestone in our collective journey towards academic excellence and social impact. Today, 195 deserving students of Fountain University are being awarded scholarships amounting to an incredible sum of ₦46,065,600, made possible through the remarkable generosity of five donors in collaboration with our university.

This initiative exemplifies our unwavering dedication to nurturing brilliance, removing barriers to education, and rewarding academic and moral excellence. It also reaffirms the shared commitment of our donors and Fountain University to creating opportunities for students to thrive and excel in a competitive world.

On behalf of the university, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our esteemed donors for their outstanding support and investment in the future of these young minds. Your contributions are more than just financial; they are a testament to your unwavering belief in the transformative power of education and the potential of these students to shape a brighter future.

I would also like to sincerely appreciate the University Scholarship Committee for their tireless efforts in ensuring the transparent and seamless execution of this noble initiative. Your diligence and dedication to upholding the university's values are commendable and deeply appreciated.

To the 155 beneficiaries, today's recognition is a reward for your diligence, resilience, and commitment to your studies. It is also a reminder of the high expectations placed on you as ambassadors of Fountain University. I urge you to embrace this privilege with humility and dedication, striving always for excellence and contributing positively to your communities.

As an Islamic faith-based university, we are deeply committed to upholding values of compassion, equity, and empowerment. This scholarship program is a reflection of these principles, and it inspires us all to work harder to expand such opportunities for more students in the future.

Let us continue to foster a culture of academic and moral excellence, driven by the spirit of collaboration and unwavering faith in the transformative power of education. Together, we are shaping a legacy of greatness for Fountain University.

Congratulations to all the recipients, and may Allah (SWT) continue to bless our endeavors.

Professor Olayinka R. Karim (FNIFST, FCOFP, MIFT, MNiWARD)
Vice-Chancellor, Fountain University, Osogbo