Epistle to Titus

Chapter 1 — The Established Order

“Paul, a bondservant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ...” (Titus 1:1, NKJV)

A Given Faith

According—to the faith of God’s elect.

And the knowledge of truth.

What is given—aligns with truth.

A Living Hope

In hope—of life.

Which God promised.

What is given—is certain.

An Appointed Time

In due time—manifested His word.

What is given—
is revealed in time.

A Assigned Charge

For this reason—
I left you in Crete.

To set in order.

What is given—
must be established.

A Blameless Life

If a man is—blameless.

What is lived—must be whole.

A Faithful Steward

A steward—must be blameless.

What is given—
must be handled rightly.

A Sound Holding

Holding fast—the faithful word.

What is given—
must be held.

A Correcting Authority

That he may be able—to exhort and convict.

What is given—
must be applied.

A Disruptive Voice

There are many—insubordinate.

Idle talkers.

What is false—disrupts.

A Necessary Rebuke

Whose mouths—must be stopped.

What is untrue—
must be addressed.

A Pure Perception

To the pure—all things are pure.

What is within—shapes perception.

A Denied Reality

They profess—to know God.

But deny Him—in works.

What is lived—reveals truth.

The Deeper Revelation

Faith aligns life with truth.
Hope is rooted in God's promise.
Truth is revealed in time.
Order must be established.
Integrity defines leadership.
Stewardship requires responsibility.
Truth must be held firmly.
Authority must be exercised rightly.
False voices disrupt alignment.
Error must be corrected.
Inner condition shapes perception.
Life reveals what is truly known.

Transition Insight

What is established...

reveals order—

and what reveals order reveals truth.

Epistle to Titus

Chapter 2 — The Sound Living

“But as for you, speak the things which are proper...” (Titus 2:1, NKJV)

A Sound Doctrine

Speak—what is proper.

For sound doctrine.

What is given—
must be right.

A Mature Conduct

Older men—be sober.

Reverent.

What is lived—
must be steady.

A Guided Example

Older women—be reverent.

Teachers of good things.

What is lived—
must instruct.

A Directed Youth

Young men—be self-controlled.

What is learned—must govern.

A Consistent Pattern

In all things—show yourself a pattern.

Of good works.

What is lived—
becomes example.

A Sound Speech

Speech—that cannot be condemned.

What is spoken—must be true.

A Honoring Service

Servants—be obedient.

What is lived—
must reflect honor.

A Appearing Grace

The grace of God—has appeared.

To all men.

What is given—extends to all.

A Training Grace

Teaching us—to deny ungodliness.

What is given—trains.

A Present Living

Live—soberly.

Righteously.

Godly.

What is lived—must align.

A Blessed Hope

Looking for—the blessed hope.

What is coming—is anticipated.

A Redeeming Work

Who gave Himself—to redeem us.

And purify.

What is given—restores.

A Zealous People

A people—zealous for good works.

What is formed—acts.

The Deeper Revelation

Truth must be spoken clearly.
Life must reflect maturity.
Example teaches others.
Self-control governs life.
Living becomes a pattern.
Speech must remain sound.
Conduct reflects inward reality.
Grace extends to all people.
Grace actively trains life.
Life must align with truth.
Hope looks forward with expectation.
Christ's work redeems and purifies.
Transformation produces action.

Transition Insight

What is trained...

reveals transformation—

and what reveals transformation reveals grace.

Epistle to Titus

Chapter 3 — The Renewed Life

“Remind them to be subject to rulers...” (Titus 3:1, NKJV)

A Ready Mind

Be ready—for every good work.

What is given—
must act.

A Gentle Spirit

Speak evil—of no one.

Be peaceable.

What is lived—
must reflect grace.

A Former State

We ourselves—were once foolish.

Disobedient.

What was—is remembered.

A Kind Appearance

The kindness—and love of God...

appeared.

What is given—initiates change.

A Given Salvation

Not by works—of righteousness...

but according to His mercy.

What is given—is not earned.

A Washing Renewal

Through the washing—of regeneration.

And renewing—of the Spirit.

What is given—makes new.

A Justified Standing

Having been justified—by His grace.

What is given—restores position.

A Heir Hope

We should become—heirs.

According to hope.

What is given—includes inheritance.

A Faithful Saying

Those who have believed—should be careful to maintain good works.

What is lived—
must continue.

A Avoided Disputes

Avoid—foolish disputes.

What is empty—must be left.

A Corrected Division

Reject—a divisive man.

After warning.

What is harmful—cannot be allowed to shape what is formed.

A Completed Work

Be diligent—to come.

What is given—must be finished.

The Deeper Revelation

Life must be ready for good works.
Gentleness reflects true character.
The past is remembered with clarity.
God's kindness initiates transformation.
Salvation comes through mercy.
Renewal makes life new.
Grace restores rightful standing.
Hope includes inheritance.
Faith must be lived out.
Empty disputes must be avoided.
Division must be corrected.
What is given must be completed.
