

Year End Reflection & Intro to Incoming Class

Write an informative and encouraging letter to next year's students.
Explain to them exactly what they need to know to succeed.

Discover

Kid President Videos

Dear Graduates or Letter to a Person on Their First Day

Learn

*What is an Open Letter? Click on the link to find out.
Then read this example of an open letter from a mom to her child and then watch this YouTube video of Vlogger, Monica Church, as she gives her younger self some advice.*

Explore

Memorable Quotes from Ms. McDonald's 2016 Class

Remember & Reflect

Think back over the past year, jot down some memories and some wisdom you would like to pass on to the next class.

3 things you discovered this year.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

2 memories that stick out to you.

- 1.
- 2.

1 piece of advice you have.

- 1.

Show What You Know!

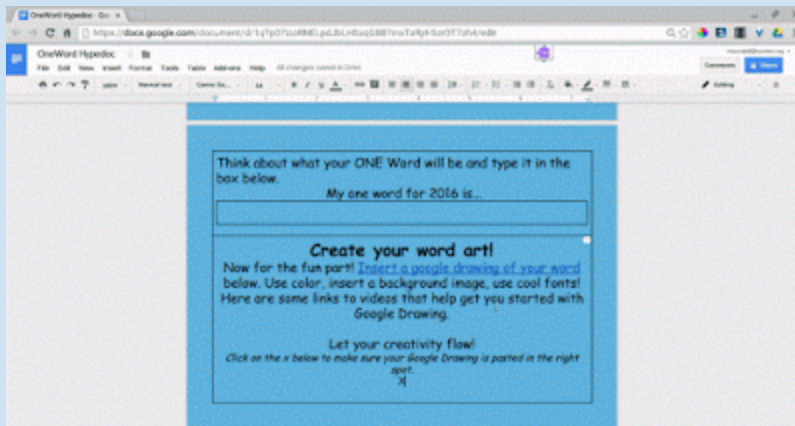

Make your own Memorable Quote!

Now for the fun part!

Insert a google drawing of your quote below. Use color and cool fonts!

Even insert a background image!

Hint- Click ctrl (or command on mac) + ↓ to move your image to the back and ctrl (or command on mac) + ↑ to move it to the front.*

Let your creativity flow!

Click on the x below to make sure your Google Drawing is pasted in the right spot.

X

Connect

In the text box below write an Open Letter to the incoming class of students.

Use your 3-2-1 reflection to help you write.

Your letter might look something like this:

Dear ____ graders,

Paragraph 1:

Snapshot of the year and what they will be doing, books they might read, activities they might do, field trips they might attend. The 2 most memorable memories that they have of the year.

Paragraph 2:

What your teacher will be like. What will her rules be. What are her/his pet peeves. What is important to this teacher.

Paragraph 3:

What advice would you give to the students reading this letter.

Share

Use this Padlet or Flipgrid to share your advice to next year's students. You can share your memorable quote OR your Open Letter.

Teachers remember to link your own padlet or flipgrid topic here!*