

Hello Andrew,

You are a great Spanish teacher! I watched a few of your youtube videos because I wanted to touch up on my Spanish skills. Soy un joven que nació y vive en los Estados Unidos pero mis papas son de México.

Your youtube content led me to your website, where I started learning more about you and your brand.

I believe "Real Fast Spanish" deserves more recognition! I see your main focus is youtube, and I can see you are working very hard. Your hard work deserves more subscribers!

If you can establish yourself on other platforms (Instagram and TikTok especially) and have better funnel structures, it would massively increase your number of subscribers and not just that but your brand in general.

I am a business consultant. I help hard-working business owners reach their company goals real fast (no pun intended). With things like email marketing, social media posts, lead funnels, landing pages, sales pages, etc.

If you want to get more subscribers on youtube, get more brand recognition, and have higher conversion rates, I would recommend you create an Instagram/Tik tok precisely for your brand, create social media ads, and create an opt-in page for your free guide.

I actually went ahead and created a social media ad and an opt-in page for your free guide.
