Healthcare

- Reduce expenses based on criteria declaring them impoverished or unable to provide basic medical assistance (including disabled or unable to work)

- Ability to buy into medicare

- MFP: money follows people, allows community funded programs to get people out of institutions and into the community