

Period 5, Green Machine

Question of the Days

Ask thought-provoking questions relative to a current lesson, world-event and relative issue, or for curiosity. Think.

Participants will receive four points and the winner decided after by a show of hands will receive an extra four points (a total of eight).

QUESTIONS (Most recent at top)

January 16, 2018

Sierra- What's wrong, but sounds right?

Sanuthi- If we are god, then aren't we also the devil?

January 15, 2018

Sanuthi- If the world is constantly changing and we are never the same, then is "normal" just an illusion?

January 10, 2018

Priscilla- Am I really living or am I just existing? What's the difference and how can I start to live more?

January 7, 2019

Sanuthi- What is a life that only has a mind to rely on?

December 23, 2018

Kira- Can you really ever truly see somebody else's perspective without the facade of words. Wouldn't this be evidence enough that we are alone in this world if we can't prove otherwise; that everything is one and as one we are everything, reality is but a figment of our imagination?

Sanuthi- How is destiny and fate different?

December 18, 2018

Kira- As we win we lose. Should we limit our advancements as they are hurting us. Should we want to live in a world without work. We would be lost because work is our purpose, our identity. Money would be heedless as life would be without work. We could be but that's terrifying.

Mr. Welch- Re: Kira's question from December 14th: Why is it that "white" is associated with "good" or "right" and "black" is associated with "bad" or "wrong"? The Black Knight. White Knight syndrome. White Christmas. ...Black Friday... Isn't there a way to talk about these without color? Bonus question: Can we discuss difficult issues without value judgements, as she implies?

December 17, 2018

Priscilla- Since history repeats why don't we make a change? Why do countries continue to fight and create divisions between one another when it's never been beneficial for all sides? Shouldn't we all be on the same side anyways, since we're all human? Why can't everyone just open their eyes and see that we need to come together to face real problems such as starvation, rather than continuing to fight over such pointless things like economic gains?

Sanuthi- What would happen if we all stopped thinking? Wouldn't we then be content with the present as we wouldn't be able process our greed?

December 15, 2018

Kira- What is the purpose of P-Ville?

Dasun- What if Mr.P is being affected by the Napoleonic syndrome but he doesn't know it and his wife does look like his mother?

December 14, 2018

Kira- As there can be no rights or wrongs then this statement must be both, neither right nor wrong. To be right can be symbolized by white and black wrong. There can be no absolutes as one corrupts the others depth. Right and wrongs exist together and within this neither exist.

Dasun- If humanity knows that there is no such thing as being perfect, why is that all humans crave is perfection?

Sanuthi- If multiple dimensions exist then how do you the know if you are the original “you”?

Yuri- If we are “free” and allowed to “do whatever we want”, then are animals freer than us? Are animals “happier” than us?

December 13, 2018

Kira- Do questions ever reach an answer?

Dasun- If freedom means doing anything you want, does that mean that animals have more freedom than humans?

Sanuthi- If humans are motivated by greed and fear, doesn't that mean it must also apply to love?

December 12, 2018

Kira- Isn't our life an illusion? We live distracted. What awaits seeking eyes?

Dasun- What if Mr.P is being affected by the Napoleonic syndrome but he doesn't know it and his wife does look like his mother?

December 11, 2018

Kira- What if when we look at our phones they are but images of our imagination and the screen is truly blank?

Sanuthi- Is change in ourselves possible or is it something inside of us that we discover and call change?

December 7, 2018

Sanuthi- Isn't sorrow the most important emotion as it enables us to feel the fact of impermanence and impermanence is the only fact known to man?

Kira- Why aren't we all living for ourselves? What keeps us from this prospect? How would this change our society?

December 6, 2018

Kira- There is so much to see in this world, but we are concerned so much with reflections. Why?

Sanuthi- Why are we so guarded when each of us are mostly facing the same sort of problems?

December 5, 2018

Sanuthi- Is it possible to feel “free” in our society without isolation (mentally and physically)?

December 3, 2018

Kira- Why does one displace another’s perspective so often? One observes but does not feel. Why is it so hard to feel?

Kira- Is greed our greatest flaw or rather a tool for survival, a lesson learned from scars?

November 30, 2018

Sal- If you trust a government more than your own government should you change it? How would you do so?

Mr. Welch - Who are the top five teachers at your Middle and Elementary schools? Why?

November 29, 2018

Sanuthi- If news are manipulated by the rich and indirectly controls the government, how are we sure what Mr P is teaching us are correct because he is technically a government worker?

November 28, 2018

Yuri- Is the Old Regime a utopia or a dystopia? What did the Third Estate think it was?

Sanuthi- If we are in a class called “world” history, why are we only learning about EUROPEAN history? Name one Eastern civilizations’ history that you have learned in school?

Kira- What is justice if equality does not exist? Does it exist? Is it possible? Without justice what is the purpose of government?

