

SL: For Your YouTube ☐

Hello Rose,

"You already are that which you desire to be, but it's your refusal to believe it is why you don't see it." - This story you shared in your last video really showed that our reality is just our own awareness. I really like your insights.

I found a way to increase the views on your videos. Improving the quality of your thumbnails will definitely increase your YouTube presence and monetization.

How about I make some free thumbnails for your next 5 videos?

This is just a quick example of a thumbnail I made for your last video:

Would you use this type of thumbnail in your videos?

Sincerely,
Alexander
