

It Was Love

V1: You loved me so someday I could love myself too
I didn't know this then another lesson to prove My life was just a run thru

V2: Sometimes...sometimes it was just this But most times it was indifference
In my reality I never learned who to trust

CHORUS

And then it was love
I would eventually see
I would eventually live
Oh, it is everything....
Opportunity
To rise to be more
To pass on to the future

V4: It was tough to look past difficulty And share your joy, to play passionately I'd become used to people giving up on me

V4: You stuck it out as I tried to love me Sometimes I broke, another casualty Still I knew you cared unconditionally

CHORUS

And then it was love
I would finally see
I would finally live
Oh, it is everything....
Opportunity
To rise to be more
To pass on to the future

CODA

To rise to be more
To pass on to the future
And then it was love
Oh, it is everything

You loved me so someday I could love myself too - I didn't know this then - another lesson, more dots on a page, another concerto, excerpt, finger pattern..

Sometimes, Sometimes it was this - but most times it was an escape from my reality - a reality filled with doubt, mistrust, indifference

it was opportunity - to rise, be more, to become it was challenge - to look past difficulty and envision joy.

It was love -

that I would eventually see, live, and pass on to the future.

It is everything.
