

Sarah's 21st Birthday Event (Hosted by MaeGal)

Hi, I'm Sarah from the blog 'MaeGal' and I'm turning 21 this October! To celebrate, I am going to be hosting a week long giveaway event on my blog running from October 19th through October 26th called "Sarah's 21st Birthday Event".

That's where you come in. I am looking for sponsors to help sponsor a large prize package for this event that will be run through my blog. I am looking for items with the general theme of "things for a 21 year old girl and college student". I enjoy fashion, beauty, things for the kitchen, cleaning, technology, books and more. I would love the opportunity to review some of your products on my blog in exchange for you sponsoring/giving away a prize in the giveaway. I am expecting a good turnout of bloggers to help promote this event.

But what's in it for you? I will post a review of your product on my blog. This will be promoted via FaceBook, Twitter and Google+. I will link to this review in the main giveaway post, which will also be promoted via social networks. Giveaway hops are a wonderful opportunity to see a lot of traffic directed to your site. I also include sponsors FaceBook and Twitter links on the Rafflecopter giveaway form, so it's a great chance to increase your fan base. I will also be offering the opportunity for other bloggers to help promote this event, so it should be publicized widely.
