

4565: Computing Foundations for a Digital Age
Unit 2

Cybersecurity Communication Project Rubric

Category	4 – Strong evidence	3 – Meets expectations	2 – Developing	1 – Limited evidence
Threat and impact	Clearly and accurately explains the concern, what is at risk, who is affected, and possible consequences.	Accurately explains the concern, what is at risk, and a consequence.	Provides a partial or somewhat unclear explanation.	Provides minimal, inaccurate information.
Security measures	Accurately explains and compares two or more appropriate measures.	Accurately explains two appropriate measures.	Identifies measures but provides limited explanation or comparison.	Measures are missing, inaccurate, or inappropriate.
Recommendation and reasoning	Makes a clear recommendation and convincingly explains why it fits better than another option.	Makes and supports an appropriate recommendation.	Makes a recommendation with limited justification.	Recommendation missing or unsupported.
Tradeoff analysis	Clearly explains a meaningful tradeoff involving security, usability, privacy, cost, or access.	Identifies and explains a reasonable tradeoff.	Mentions a disadvantage without fully explaining it.	Tradeoff is missing or inaccurate.
Communication and completion	Product is complete, organized, engaging, and easy for others to understand or use.	Product is complete and understandable.	Product is partially complete or occasionally confusing.	Product is incomplete or difficult to understand.

Total Points: ____ / 20