Renew, Swap, Buy, or Return.

Peregrine makes it easy to hand pick and customize your dream room without having to deal with the cost and commitment involved in designing a space. Redesign whenever you want by swapping pieces out at the end of your rental period, buy the furniture you love the most, renew your existing rental agreement, or simply return what you don't want to keep.

Affordable sustainability.

Did you know that 9 million tons of furniture are turned into waste each year in the US alone? Part of Peregrine's mission is to combat that number by keeping our furniture in circulation longer. Once it's reached its maximum amount of time on our subscription shelves, we donate the pieces to local charities to elongate its life beyond its time spent in your apartment.

Uncomplicated home design.

Make the transition into your new home even more simple. Choose from a selection of design packages created in-house from the stylists at Peregrine. Set up a beautiful room in seconds—without having to spend hours choosing each individual piece.

About Us:

It all started with three friends who were tired of dealing with the stress involved with moving, but loved having the freedom to change their environment to reflect their current lifestyle. Living in a city like New York often presents its own unique set of challenges, but moving shouldn't have to be one of them.

Peregrine is a simplified, sustainable answer to furniture and home decor. It gives you the freedom to build a nest that reflects who you are right now and change it as you need. Whether you're downsizing, upgrading, moving across the city, or just want something fresh—we'll be there for you every step of the way.
