INSTRUCTIONS TO CREATE A COLORFUL CLASSROOMS WISHLIST

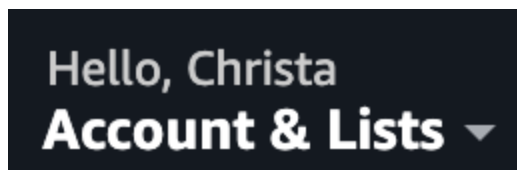

Thank you for volunteering to help assist Colorful Classrooms in our mission to provide teachers with books that feature protagonists of color and encourage productive conversations about race in the classroom!

Though we are currently exploring ways to partner with other bookstores for this initiative, Amazon Wishlists are the current more effective option. The lists are fairly simple to set up, but with over 150 teacher applicants in just a couple hours and lists selling out quickly, I am not able to meet demand alone - an amazing problem to have!

You must have an Amazon account to create a wishlist.

Please see below for instructions on how to set up a Colorful Classrooms Amazon Wishlist:

1. Go to your 'Accounts and Lists' dropdown menu and select 'Your Lists'

- PLEASE FILTER BY UNPURCHASED TO ENSURE WE'RE NOT PURCHASING DUPLICATES To Purchase: checkout from this list as you normally would, and when selecting an address please select 'TEACHER NAME Gift Registry Address'. | TEACHER FIRST NAME is a teacher at SCHOOL NAME in CITY. Teachers are one of the first lines of defense against racism, but often don't have the proper resources to achieve that - we hope you'll join us in trying to help alleviate the burden. Thank you!
 - Click the shipping address drop down to select 'add new address'. Input the teacher's address (I will provide).
 - It will ask for a phone number. If I do not provide you with a phone number, please put your own for now (I have never received a call from Amazon about a package so I think it's safe).
 - Check 'Third Party Shipping Agreement'
 - Check 'Keep purchased items on list'
 - If it is an option, uncheck 'Don't spoil my surprises'
 - ☒ Third party shipping agreement ▾

Yes, let Amazon.com share my wish list shipping address with third-party merchants to ship purchases from this wish list.

6. To populate the book list, please go off of the below links. Use these lists to populate the new list (the easiest way I've found is to click each book and add to the new list):

7. Add contactcolorfulclassrooms@gmail.com as a collaborator so I can make edits to the list if necessary. This can be done by generating a VIEW AND EDIT link. Click 'Invite' located on the left side of the page underneath the description.

8. Submit your 'VIEW ONLY' links to this Google form. I cannot access the View Only link if I didn't create the list (even if you make me a collaborator) so you will need to submit it to me.
