What games can I play to fulfil the bonus wagering requirement?

Eligible games are displayed in the tab left of these terms.

Stakes on some of our games don't count in full towards the wagering requirement. Instead they have a percentage contribution as outlined below;

Arcade, Scratchcard Games and Fixed Odds Games (Excluding Spin A Win/Lucky Wheel)	100%
Roulette (All Varieties excluding Zero Roulette and 3D)	50%

Example:

A bet of £100 on Craps will be calculated as £5 for wagering requirements.

Other boring but essential stuff

What happens if I cancel my bonus?

If you cancel your bonus, you also forfeit any pending winnings you have accrued. Cancelled bonuses and winnings cannot be refunded.

How are my funds used in a buy-in/match deposit bonus offer?

When a player chooses to participate in a buy-in/match deposit offer (such as this one), the combined value of their real cash buy-in amount is combined with the bonus. This combined sum is referred to as the "Casino Promotional Balance". When a player places a bet, their buy-in amount will be used up first and their bonus will be used after the buy-in amount has been fully used up.

Example:

A player participates in a 100% match deposit bonus by buying in for £100. The Casino adds a £100 bonus and this creates a new Casino Promotional Balance of £200 (which is non-withdrawable until the applicable wagering requirements are completed). The player places a bet of £1 and is not successful so his Casino Promotional Balance is now £199. Of his remaining Casino Promotional Balance, £99 remains from his buy-in amount and £100 remains of his bonus amount.

Where can I see my buy-in/match deposit bonus balance?

You can see your Casino Promotional Balance in two places: (1) the "My account" section and (2) in your balance summary.

Can I claim any other bonuses while a sign-up bonus is already active on my account?

You will only be able to qualify for one sign-up bonus, which will be offered depending on the value of your first 'claimed' amount.

If you trigger any other promotional bonus while another is still active, the bonuses will queue in your bonus balance. All your active bonuses will be shown in your Casino balance. However all wagering on eligible games will count towards the requirements of the first bonus you accepted.

General Terms and Conditions" which are applicable to all Casino bonuses

Please note that the provisions and sanctions contained in these General Casino Bonus Terms & Conditions relating to promotional abuse are seeking to identify customers who are, in our reasonable opinion, deliberately and dishonestly participating in playing strategies in an attempt to abuse Casino Bonuses. The exact value of each free spin is calculated by multiplying the number of lines available on the slot game by a coin value of $0.01 (e.g. a 25 line slot multiplied by $0.01 will result in a $0.25 free spin value).
- Winnings from free spins will be transferred to your account as redeemable bonus funds.
- These funds must be wagered 20 times, on Age of the Gods games exclusively, before you're allowed to withdraw your bonus and any winnings. Please note that maximum bet restrictions apply to wagering bonus funds.
