Fast Tracked Rules: hello, i'm miles (yes, that miles) and formally known as satan, i'm 26 as of this 6/25/22 update and if you have any issues or qualms with me being having call outs in past and believe me incapable of change, please don't follow me. Rule number six explains the situation and i will absolutely answer any questions surrounding any information within the call outs pertaining to me that you have perhaps seen. by reading my rules and this mere fast track you understand that i am acknowledging the abhorrent behavior in my past and are working on my behavior actively. by following I will assume you have read my rules and understand and thus cannot feign ignorance, this fast track will be placed on all my blog documents and thus cannot state it is not here. on this note: if you want to see the callout yourself, on this note: the callout / receipts blog is above to peruse !

001. Hi there !! I'm Satan / Miles, I'm Native / African American who lives in QLD, Australia. I'm trans male && this is my (low activity + dash only) indie non binary WITCHER oc: sunflower. Her main canon is set within the witcher universe mid - post game: she is mine with no initial sharing canon even with her being dandelion's daughter !

002. I'm semi - selective && mutuals only – basic rule is that if we're following each other, we're cool to thread with each other !! If you try && thread && we're not mutuals you'll be ignored for disregarding rules.

003. Mun is of age for NSFW (25 years) and so is muse in her later years. NSFW will be on this blog up to including: dark themes, death, blood, violence, mention of monsters, possible war crimes and religion and so forth. I won't be writing anything to do with sexual assault (though, occasionally, it will be brought up) or any heavily “ taboo “ topics. ANYTHING to do with smut will only be written when within her older base canon verses - no exceptions.

004. I don't write with minors [i.e: muns under the age of 18]. I don't ship with minors or minor munes. Anyone found lying about their age will be unfollowed, dropped and blocked immediately. No exceptions.

005. Do not write or look at me if you are: homophobic, transphobic, lesbophobic, support / condone incest, aim to follow me only to “ watch me “ for someone else, wish to involve me in past or current unrelated - to - me drama, vagueblog or support callout / cancel culture without tagging the posts. It's rare that I will partake but I sometimes will reblog callouts with ongoing and genuine distressing content involved (see: matt, those involved with the 'ollie situation ' etc.). also, please respect dual mutuals' dni's. I do not have a dni but i know those out there that do and have me on it --- please respect folk that have me on their and not make them uncomfortable when they try and curate their safe spaces only to see me through x on their dash.

006. My past (2016 / 2017) and 2018 call-out had instances / mentions of manipulation, lesbiphobia, writing incest, misdealings with minors, forcecanons and just not watching what i've said. I'm working on being better, with previous and recent (September / October 2019 and a " receipts " blog made in March 2020 in relation to all past call out's) revivals of my call - out(s) and understanding some believed I omitted parts of my story of what i've said when asked or simply didn't believe it was in depth . . I've apologized in early October referenced HERE and HERE with former acknowledgements HERE, HERE && with further information / what happened HERE I'm working to do better by people && recognise that I behaved terribly, and I'm sorry for how I hurt people over the years. in regards to the original call out and one(s) created in 2019 that was re - uploaded, i acknowledge my prior behavior was predatory and unacceptable and with my actions I completely understand if people no longer wish to write with me in light of my actions in the past and present. the op, amongst others were severely hurt by my actions and their feelings about me and reasons to continue to bring up my past are valid.

while I know apologizing won't fix everything, if anything at all, and i know that people won't forgive me for actions past and present – i do want to make it clear that their response to me is completely understandable and this kind of behavior from me is unacceptable and I hope to prove to the OP and everyone else that i can change as a person. acknowledging that i've been making apology after apology and making it about me is a start. I know that my apologies related to the original call out and following that i wasn't holding the feelings of the victims to the forefront when i believed i did - and that's wholly on me.

I can't change the fact that i did hurtful things and effectively upset others by my actions. everything I did when it came to lying, manipulation, my predatory behavior in the past and how I forced headcanons or ships was unacceptable. I can and am being more mindful and to acknowledge how i've made others feel and how they feel and it to not happen again. those willing to have a dialogue with me so I can give the apology that should have been given before to those who have been involved or hurt one on one I'm happy to give it. if not that is also understandable.

007. To follow up on that: THIS is the current feel here as i'm not blind to the fact that this blog will be pointed out since its new and a focus hence why anon is off. Further conversation is HERE and HERE. HOWEVER if you have ANY questions of what's happened, what you've heard about me or even have a NEW problem with me and are willing to dialogue with me just shout at me over IM. Let's talk about it !! Like stated in the fast track and the above rule -- ask me for the receipts blog and i will happily provide **!!

008. I'm a chameleon roleplayer, I will change my formatting, size, etc to suit you -- if something is wrong or you cannot read it, please come to me and let me know so I can edit.

009. I am aware anon is off, don't mention it. If you are a sideblog trying to contact me just message me through your hub blog and let me know who its for, thank you **!!

010. I sometimes mass reply - please be aware that SOMETIMES it can be as much to 20 - 40 items at a time.

011. No godmodding what so ever, you'll be blocked.

012. I ask that you softblock me when you unfollow - tumblr can be a nightmare sometimes so sometimes there can be mistakes. I will honor your wish to unfollow without issue however please softblock so I get the picture.

012.5 Nine times out of ten I simply unfollow when I break mutuals and never softblock 'less for severe instances. If you've found that you've been " softblocked " its likely due to me seeing you've either purposefully or not unfollowed me first and not come to you due to respecting whatever your decision was. If your unfollow was accidental -- that's fine ! Just refollow and it'll be chill, no worries.

013. DO NOT, EVER, reblog my OOC posts if they aren't tagged that you can.

014. ANON is turned on && off sometimes ; if you are a sideblog, simply send me an ask or something from your main hub blog && simply put the url in brackets. edit: as rule 009 made aware, anon is off indefinitely.

014.5 If you ever are shipping with me and end up not wanting to continue a ship, please tell me. I won't be mad but it'll save us a lot of trouble in the long run ---- i'm not a mind reader and can't tell that you don't want to.

015. For the love of god, please tell me if you have an issue with me, if i've upset you somehow or made you uncomfortable. I won't get upset, trust me, i'll honestly thank you. I'll work on fixing whatever I've done, either it my behavior or add tags to keep y'all safe. I don't want anyone to be uncomfortable.

016. I usually end up following, like, a TON of people (over 600) thus if you feel that I'm not giving attention to your blog or trying to write .. that's usually not on purpose. Please like a starter call or send in a meme so I can put my attention with you promptly, it's better than ending something before it started and being bitter !!

017. Most icons are made by me (not the art obviously as they come from various sources but being put into shape && the psd.) so do not take them unless they are in a post. I will not react kindly of stolen graphics either.

018. you can answer / continue any meme i respond to, you don't have to ask !!

019. Most icons are made by me (not the art obviously as they come from various sources but being put into shape && the psd.) so do not take them unless they are in a post. I will not react kindly to stolen graphics either.

020. Feel free to write me a starter if we're mutuals, I don't bite !!

021. I please ask that people who RP real people (ie. youtubers) to NOT follow me. It makes me SUPER uncomfortable, please understand. However there is an exception to this rule if you are a close friend of mine — i'll work even though my uncomf for y'all.

022. If you want my discord, psn, etc just ask me if you are a mutual and if i'm not here on geralt i'll usually be over on demonslayvr or, if you have me: on discord.

022.5. speaking of demonslayvr, former blogs of mine have included: rozpustnik, platkisloneczne, onapali, plythburned, lackspraise, countitoff, tenderborn, lackshumanity

023. If you have any questions (whether character related OR something to do with my past, what i've done or call outs associated.)

024. yes, i am aware (or not aware) that x person is vaguing about me, has me on their dni or has reblogged a post on me - i don't care and don't want to know about it: see 005. for more information to refresh. I'm sorry 100% if someone's dni has put you in an awkward situation but just do what makes you most comfortable - i won't be offended if you bounce for your mental health.

025. Most of my icons are from various sources (x), with the use of psd ' zelda . . . 2 ' belonging to ratresources with lily-rph's random and faceless aesthetic icons for my dash icon, starter + answered ask banners are the template ' allison ' from honeypsd and header commissioned from leasrph.
