

HAPPY 24TH BIRTHDAY DEMON KING

xxMintoStarxx

Hi Sean! OMG! Its been four years since we first chatted and became fast friends. Time flies, right? 2017-2021 (wow xD) I mean, we did have our ups and downs, but, that's what makes a friendship work, by reconnecting again, and becoming closer! :). I am really super glad that I have you as a brother and a great editing partner to give each other advise upon. You really helped me and believe in me to help me better up my editing skills, especially in DCS & SWS. :). I love how we both share our love for the lion king, horror movies, and the blue blur himself. You're a great friend and I hope we get to catch up again soon! :). I hope your birthday is a great one man

Sean, what can I say that I haven't already. You pulled me out of one of the loneliest moments in my life all those years ago, and I cannot thank you enough for that. You introduced me to all these lovely people that I cannot imagine life without, and that are now closer to me than my own blood relatives. Our friendship means the world to me. Even though you haven't been as active online lately I can still notice you hiding in the shadows watching over us like the proud father you are. You have touched the hearts of many and inspired me and many others to keep moving forward. Happy birthday you dark mysterious demon.

Hiii Azerough! Happy birthday buddy!
I still remember our first VC on Vesta's stream I couldn't talk much that day but after that there were many other calls or just casually vibing/invading your VC . But any who I'm very happy you're my friend I've only known you for what? A year and a half? You've done so much for me and I wish I could repay you back (and don't think I won't one day huehue)

Hey Sean, I know, it's been a long time since I've met ya, gotta be honest, I thought your a very serious person when I first saw you at SWS, I mean, I rarely saw you talk and stuff, but it was really great to know you, as a leader you've helped me a lot in editing and even accepted me as a member at SWS, and as a fellow guy, you even helped me in my friendship situations, I can't thank you enough for that, all I can say is, I'm glad to meet someone like you, I hope you liked our surprise, happy birthday

Hey there Sean. I know that we don't talk much anymore, but I still want you to know that I hope every day that you're doing the best for yourself. I hope you're doing great today. I know that I couldn't join any of these MEP's again, but I'm still trying my best to do the little things to always make you welcome around me. Happy birthday, man.

Another season, another year, another time.
Every day I am thankful to have known you.

Looking back after several birthdays, I still find myself fawning over the first one I spent with you. I just remember how happy you were. For each year after that, I truly wanted to make it the best day as I could make it for you. Even if it was just across a screen. Not only because you should always have a great birthday. But I recall the way your eyes lit up, how big your smile was, the giddiness was almost child-like. You were just so adorable in that moment of time. That it's almost in-bedded in my memory. I celebrate you today and every other day that makes another 365 days. Because you are so marvelous, astounding, and over all the best thing I could ever ask for.

You are so inspired to many others. I mean- Look at your editing! No one can do the things you do. Creating the various story-lines, while seamlessly blending the dark style aspect, your custom scenes are like the biggest OHHHH YEAAAAA! <3 Even when I first met you, you showed me your graphics work, even your drawings of Azerough. You are so talented. I will always continue to support your work no matter how many fuckiinng times you will say:
It's trash, ew, gross, it's not that good, ect

Because ALL of your stuff. IS FUCKING AMAZING.

I thank you for also allowing our ship to be something. Our babies bring me so much joy looking at all the commissions we have gotten last year into this year. I am blessed to know that you want to get them commissioned and that you also got one of them framed. ;-; which is just faskdfkjashfwkaehfa

I cannot wait to meet you one day and be able to put that into my room. Thank you for having such a cute fucking ship with me. <3 I still find it ironic both of them start with A and both are electromancers.

You are the one person I can always count on at the end of the day. No matter if its ranting about useless things in my life or the really important life aspects. You listen to me, giving advice, and most importantly your time. I am over the moon that destiny put us in the way for us to meet. I will always say it because without a doubt, my life would be so different if you never shot that message to me. You are the biggest reason of who I am today and I cannot thank you enough for the undying amount of support, love, and affection you give me. Every single moment I spend with you, even the dead by daylight raging ones. Makes me so blessed to be in your presence. You do live in my head some days, even when i'm working, or with friends. I often think about what you are doing, Even though its probably staring at four walls I still think about you often. Our bond is like no other, it feels as if we have been through hell and back. But we always find a way back to another and continue on. You have my back and I will always have yours. You have made the past 5 years fly by with so many memories, I thank you for making them and allowing me to be by your side doing the same.

I know this year has put a bit of a damper on your ambitions and creativity. To which I know you will bounce back and that you will never surrender, because you were born ready to rise above it. (50 points to Gryffindor if you get what I'm referencing) You aren't a demon, regardless of your past or recent events. You may think you are this edgy guy but deep down you are one of the most sweet, empathetic, blunt, understanding people. I hope more people come to understand this and love you for you. Just like Rachael, Brie, and I do. <3

I love you. Your floofy marshmallow pusheena
