I.1.8 Others (Please Specify):

Practical Immersion and Community Extension Activities

The BSESS program also implements the following under “Others”:

- Practicum / Internship with Partner Institutions: Students are deployed to sports clinics, fitness centers, schools, or LGUs for hands-on experience in real settings, performing roles in coaching, fitness programming, and physical activity promotion.
- Community-Based Physical Activity Extension: The program actively engages in extension services such as the Hybrid Sports Clinic, Project STEP (Sports Training and Exercise Program), and Fitness for All Campaign, wherein students lead and facilitate physical activity sessions for children, youth, and older adults.
- Capstone Experience (Sport Science Practicum): Seniors undergo capstone immersion, integrating accumulated learning by performing independently in a real-world setting while still receiving supervision and mentoring from both academic and field supervisors.

These initiatives reflect the program’s commitment to holistic student development, aligned with institutional outcomes and local community needs.
