Kudata Values

Dynamic

In the fast-paced world of an early stage startup, our jobs and tasks may change overtime and we embrace adapting and taking on new challenges in supporting each other.

Initiative

For us, initiative means never sitting still, always developing ourselves, always thinking for the future – and always proactive.

Communicative

We expect and foster commitment from the individual and the group to have an open communication, because we are committed to achieving our goals, and we see this as the foundation for long-term relationships and success.

Open-minded

We are flexible and open to ideas cross-division. We have an open mind towards developments and promote innovations.

Kudata Workspace

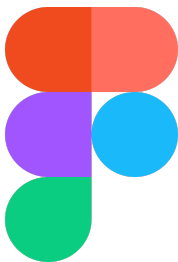

Our main communication channel. You will join: Kudata Generalum group for all members and a group for your respective divisions.

Our main database and working documents are in Google Drive. You will get access to the folders relevant to your work and some general folders. Feel free to request for access if you need something!

Kudata has project management tools to organize tasks when needed.

Kudata also has Figma that can be used for UI/UX and content design purposes.

Need to brainstorm with post-its and mind maps? Go to Kudata's board!

And even more platforms and apps used in respective divisions...

Part 3: How am I doing?

Performance Evaluation and Appreciation

We hold this every quarter (3 months), and in your case, it will be once for your internship period!

This is a good chance for you to gauge how well you are performing in the team and learn insights about yourself!

Part 3: How am I doing?

Part 4: Choose Your Own Adventure

What after 3 months?

At the end of your internship, you will prepare a 5 mins End of Internship Presentation to be presented to our Core Team.

3 Questions to reflect in your presentation:

1. What do you like the most about working in Kudata?
2. If you were the owner of Kudata, what would you do differently?
3. Choose one out of these:
 - a. What areas do you feel most significant growth in?
 - b. What have you learned about yourself throughout working in Kudata?

Not keen on saying goodbye to us?

If you are interested in continuing the adventure beyond the 3 month internship, we are very open to that and from our evaluation of your performance, we can decide to extend your membership in Kudata!

Part 4: Choose Your Own Adventure
