Friends

⇒ Samira (made up) | Samira is the manager of the music store that has the radio station he works at. She is also the only other radio host in the place, though she puts her focus more to managing the store than being on air. They get along well and have become friends.

⇒ Judy | The two became good friends when Cato is part of the Mox, even living together for awhile In his first few years as a Mox. He stays living in Kabuki that time after he gets his own place and she moves to her apartment she has in game. After Cato moves away to Japantown and leaves the Mox the two still talk more than he does with any other Mox. He still sees her as a good friend and they catch up every few weeks at dinner.

⇒ Claire | He has been to the afterlife a few times, mainly because Samira loves the place and he likes to drink with his friend. It didnt take long to talk to Claire and become friends, especially both being trans and bonding over that too.

As a cop River comes by on lunch breaks with food for both of them and Cato often takes a break when he does. Cato can replace V as a merc helping find Randy. If not they do keep in touch after River leaves the force and he sees it as a chance to come by more, make a real friendship and maybe more.

Though he comes by another time and questions the boy. Cato shrugs saying he likes the ride and food, he is retired from doing any merc work.
