

Teacher of Promise Rubric

Candidate number _____

Category	10	8	6	0
Communication	Personal statement is well written, organized logically, is of a professional nature and is easily understood by the committee.	Personal statement is fairly well written, organized logically but may have a few typos or gaps in natural flow of prose. The statement is easily understood by the committee.	Personal statement has some organizational or structural errors that make it difficult to be understood by the committee.	Personal statement is not of a professional nature, is difficult to understand or is not well organized.
Resumé	Candidate's resume is professional, demonstrates superior involvement in education, world languages or a combination there of.	Candidate's resume is professional but their involvement in education and world languages meets expectations.	Candidate's resume may have errors, may be incomplete or show minimal involvement in education or world languages	Candidate's resume is not professional or shows little to no involvement in education or world languages
Completion of Program	Candidate has completed a student teaching program and submitted either a certificate of completion, copy of diploma or copy of license as proof of completion.			Candidate has not completed a student teaching program or a program for licensure successfully by deadline.
Category	20	16	12	0
Insight/Passion	Candidate's statement shows great insight, passion and compassion that embody the spirit of Michael Oates and this award through its entirety.	Candidate's statement shows moments of great insight, passion and compassion that embody the spirit of Michael Oates and this award.	Candidate's statement shows few moments of insight, passion and compassion that embody the spirit of Michael Oates and this award.	Candidate shows little insight, passion or compassion in their statement.

Total points : _____/50

Comments/Notes: