Abstract

The abstract must explain the research background, research methods and results. Written in 200 - 250 words.

Keywords

European Union; Benedict Anderson; Nationalism Theory; Definitions of Nation
(for example)

Introduction

The introduction section explains the research problem based on empirical phenomena, the theory used by the author and the novelty of the research.

Method

Research methods are the strategies, processes or techniques utilized in the collection of data or evidence for analysis to uncover new information or create better understanding of a topic.

Discussion

The discussion section contains the results and outcomes of a study. An effective discussion informs readers what can be learned from your experiment and provides context for the results.

Conclusion

A conclusion should always: Highlight the key argument presented in the essay. Summarise the answer to the essay question, as signalled in the introduction. Refer back to the essay question to show that it has been answered. Reinforce the main theme of the essay, which has been established in the introduction.

Acknowledgements

(if any) for example: Special thanks to Danila Haarmann for reading a draft, and to Amanda Müller-Hahn and José Andrés Gonzalez Pedraza of the European Parliamentary Archive for their helpful assistance.
