

got audio books?
dozens FREE at go/overdrive/

1. Download the Overdrive app to your listening device and create an original account.
2. Sign in and add the "Davis Family Library." A prompt to sign in with a library card will appear; accept, but use your Middlebury College credentials instead.
3. Browse the available selections found at go/overdrive/, make a choice, and borrow an audio book or ebook.
4. Download the desired MP3 files and access your loans from your electronic bookshelf.
5. Listen or read to your heart's content and share this info with a friend.

Also consider getting a library card from the Ilsley Public Library in Middlebury to access the Green Mountain Library Consortium (go/gmlc/), which holds over 5,000 audio books, all free for you to borrow. Using your library card barcode and your last name in all caps (examples: QUIÑONEZ or TRUONG) as your password, borrow both classic titles and new releases!
