Mr. Schofield, was sitting inside his office as he looked through the security cameras of the school. He then checked the attendance as he saw all the students were in their right classes. As he gets up from his desk he messes with his tie as he then puts on his sweater vest, and he ends up walking out of his office. He waves to people in the hall that he passes as he ends up walking to a certain classroom he knows that she's in and he says while opening the door as he saw the security camera directly on top of her as he had watched her play with herself like he said to especially with the really revealing outfit and he says to the teacher "Hello Mr. Calhoun I need Mrs. Brookes please." he says as he hears the kids making noises of oo's and oh she's in trouble. He just shakes his head, as he watches her gather her things and he opens the door for her as he let her walk out the classroom as they make it back to his office in silence. Once there he ends up shutting his door as he knew everyone else was on break and he ends up shutting the door behind her and he takes her things and places them on the chair. As he finished doing those he sees the short skirt she wore as he ends up pinning her to his desk as he says in her ear as his cock was pressed against her ass "How about you have some fun with me Mrs. Brookes if you want to be able to graduate and pass your classes which I know you're failing them so how about that deal" he says as he reminds her again like he did at the beginning of Freshman year. While he waits for her response his hands slip underneath her skirt that was part of her uniform and he smirks as he notices her not wearing panties, and he ends up pushing his fingers inside of her roughly.
