Philosophy and Ethics

Summer Task

Name:

Philosophy and Ethics

Summer Task

During the summer you will be required to complete the following tasks. These should then be handed in the first lesson you have Philosophy and Ethics. If you are unsure of anything please come and see the RE department who will direct you on to the right path. Asking for help is not a weakness but a strength!!!

Task One:

Research the definitions of the following Key words and write a definition in your own words for each one.

Philosophy Key words	Ethics Key Words
Form:	Deduction:
Archetype:	Definition:
Form of all Good:	Factual statement:
Analogy:	Fallacy:
The Cave:	Logic:
A posteriori:	Absolute:

[ A D · ·
A Priori:	Analytic Statement:
- .	_
lask	: Two
Desearch Plato's Analogy of the Cave Roy	oks are available in PB1, you can find good anford.edu/class/ihum40/cave.pdf) and use
•	to support your knowledge:
	IYFKA&feature=rellist&playnext=1&list=PL
BAB/4F64	E0E8D9BB
Please do not use Wikipedia as this is	s not a reliable website for anything.
Now answer the following questions:
Describe Plato's Analogy of the Cave:
G = = = = = = = = = = = = = = = = = = =

Compain the meaning and leaves ante of the	- Analogy of the Court
Explain the meaning and key parts of the	e Analogy of the Cave:

Evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of this theory. (What does it ex answer? What does it not explain or answer?) Through your research your across philosophers who have evaluated this theory, include them evaluation as well, this will enable you to achieve A-A* grades.  Strengths of the theory  Weaknesses of the theory answer? What does it not exp come across philosophers who evaluation as well, this will enab	lain or answer?) Through your research y have evaluated this theory, include them ble you to achieve A-A* grades.