SL: Hey, take a look

Hi Jola,

In one of your recent posts you said jokes are a great way to spark creativity, I thought it's not true at first...... Kidding! Thanks for the tip.

There are some things you could think of to enhance the quantity of people commenting on each of your posts.

And one thing you might think about relating to your services.

Would you like me to send you a short video record explaining those things? Tell me.

Kind regards,

Arseniy
