Cycle One:

Sigh I joined to be a serial killer, and ended up an eliminator instead. Rip me.
Fair warning, I'll most likely only be able to get on once a day, if that, cuz I'm still juggling school and a bunch of other stuff. I'm far enough in the semester where I have a better handle on things so I should be ok.

Oh well... Hi guys this is just my second elim game so... we'll see how it goes :P
I'm the Head Arbiter so I can cancel votes and I've got a Vase to roleblock others.
What's your roles and items?

Just seen we need to outnumber the village to win so we need to kill 8 people (9 if the Forger isn't among the 8) and stay alive, meaning 4/5 perfect cycles and well, Forger's kill on to land on us.

Okay whom to kill...

TUO

Danex - Likely to be voted out

Ashwastaken - New

Ashbringer

Mage - New

Araris

Orlok - Returning

Devotary - Misses out on games due to IMing

Venture - returning

Tani - Killed D1 in last game

Hmmm, leaves us with TUO, Ash and Araris....

Note to myself : Steps to do if you die - connect yourself to Araris/Venture because of the vote. Maybe even Ashwastaken.

Steel, are you going to be creating a Skeletal?

Mat, Elan, Steel, TJ, Theo(Dragonet)

Because if I submit the kill, then they will see the Soothe missing, meaning... They might think evil HA is inactive... Hmmmm what if we have a non-kill cycle? Steel, lemme know if you're creating a Skeletal or want to kill.

I have submitted the kill on Ashbringer. Steel, your choice - you can create a Skeletal or submit the kill. If you submit the kill, let me know, so I can change my action to some vote cancel confusion.

Second elim game TJ, try first! Thankfully it does not look like I have any special roles.

Ah hi SeaD! Was worried there for a while that I'd kinda have to play like a Serial Killer :P Since you don't have a role, can you submit the kill for us? Just send "Kill Ashbringer" as a reply to the message Mat sent to you in which he told you of your alignment.

Absolutely. I have to do a writing assignment now, should I send a basic "hello world" message in the game? And if so can I have some advice? Yeah, any doubts you have, ask the thread so you don't seem to have help about stuff from a doc. Yeah, you could say you're busy and come back later, yep.

Also, usually teams ask new players to kinda overplay their newness but I'm kinda ehh against this tactic, so I'll just tell you to just be yourself. No need to overplay the newness or anything.

Cool beans, will co. TJ, it looks like you are being voted by some ppl. Should I say something to defend you? Anyhow back to writing assignment

Nah nah it's alright. You have no reason to believe I'm village if you were village, so you wouldn't defend me. Besides, it's just one vote so no danger as of yet.

Ok, do you have a recommendation of who to vote for once I get a clue of how to play this game?

Basically try to think of a feasible reason why you would find someone suspicious, like if you were a villager you'd find such a thing suspicious and then vote for them. If you don't find anyone like that, I'd recommend not voting, at least not in the first cycle.

I could team up with danex and accuse Ed Venture as well. Sure, go ahead, try making it sound genuinely from a village perspective.

Oh, have you submitted the kill order?

I have submitted it.

How does this look:

I definitely see where Danex is coming from here

33 minutes ago, Danex said:

is this not the most blatant elim tell you've ever read?

it is. it is the most blatant elim tell.

Mat, Elan, Steel, TJ, Theo(Dragonet)

it's so blatant that if this game had a joker I'd think he was that and was trying to look sus.

Then again, the fact that Danex voted TJ again after apparently voting him the whole of last D1 last game and then turning out to be the elim is rather sus. Do we have access to the previous games elim pm to see if he talked about that there?

Yeah, sounds good yup.

Sent. now back to writing

Nice, hopefully it'll all remain peaceful and calm.

Great ppl are now susing me. It turned out ok.

Votes ended at:

- |TJ| (1): Danex
- Danex (3): Araris Valerian, Ed Venture, |TJ|
- Ed Venture (2): Mage, Orlok Tsubodai

Cycle Two:

I'd say that went quite poggery for us, what about you?

Yep, I'd say that went peachy well.

Also, I didn't cancel a vote. Sometimes the absence of a cancelled vote confuses them more than cancelling a vote.

Ashbringer was a good kill, it seems. He cannot give Art to other villagers, and his Scepter is wasted without a kill.

Kinda thinking Araris is the SK but eh, we'll worry about the SK later.

Sorry for not signing in, I made a skeletal yesterday and didn't really get back on after that.

Who should I murder? Araris?

Araris is giving me lots of advice in dms XD I feel so bad that i will prolly have to kill them

3 hours ago, Araris Valerian said:

If you very strongly believe that most/all of the elims voted last cycle, then you should probably vote for one of said people. Pick me if you want 😊

We need to kill them to confirm them so that we can get a bunch of other ppl out
Hmmm, lemme think. If we kill him, they might focus on me because we voted together and Venture also might get cleared if he dies this cycle.

Mat, Elan, Steel, TJ, Theo(Dragonet)

... you know I really should have checked who my team was before I voted. Oops.
Sorry about that TJ

Seadragonet, I would recommend voting on someone. I don't believe either of you have played with Orlok before, and I'm not sure how aggressive he'll be this game, but we must be wary of him. Him and Priest of Chaos (I'm forgetting his username) are the players to be most feared on the entire forum. So, please vote, because otherwise it really looks like a newbie elim who doesn't know who to vote for because they don't have any suspicions.

Yeaah, I've played with Orlok alright. Kinda difficult for SeaDragonet to vote given they said they might not vote hmmm.

Dragonet, if Venture looks like they are getting voted out, kill Ashwastaken. If it looks like Venture will survive, kill Mage.

Tell me who to vote and i will vote them then

TJ, mb reply to my msg and say "vote me or Ed Venture" and then I vote Ed?

Dragonet, at this point, voting is a risk for you, even in this cycle. Also, confirm if you've sent a kill order on Ashwastaken please.

Later, when I'm asleep if it becomes closer, maaaaaaybe vote Venture.

SHOOT did not see you say that and I voted uh oh

Also sent

I think I managed to defuse the situation

That or I threw the game

Cycle Three:

I broke your colors when I c/pd the C3 header, and I think I fixed them but you should also double check :P

Well, we're absolutely killing it with the kills :P

Although I'm not sure if killing Soul Froger ribbit this early is to our benefit. It's always good to prevent a possible kill on our team.

For us, it's still the same. 2 more clean cycles. I'm thinking of confusing everyone by killing Orlok this cycle :P.

Steel, I think you should role-block one of TUO or Mage this cycle.

So I should say "kill orlok?"

Hmmmm, you know what? Go ahead, we can change it later if we want.

~~they has been murder~~

Whoaaa creepy :P

You know what I want? I want 2 villagers to be closely in vote and then I'll remove a vote for the first time this game and then propose that since elim HA did not feel like getting involved in manipulation till now, it must be because the other person must be an elim :P.

Mat, Elan, Steel, TJ, Theo(Dragonet)

Cycle Four:

Yo, guys we need you to be active. If you both die due to inactivity, I'll be left with 2 villagers on my own -.- I do have Illwei as a single PHer. Well, Steel posted so it looks like we'll be fine.

Alright, Dragonet, it's time to kill Araris.

Hmmm, you know what? On second thought, we should focus on killing the Arbiter and I think it is Mage. If they aren't getting voted out.

Bah, endgame is always nervy. One tiny mistake and it all comes crashing down.

Dragonet, is there a kill on someone rn, if and yes, who is it on?

Araris - would probably use vote manip each cycle ; not GA ; possibly Emperor
Tani - vote shift not along with her vote ; not GA ; unlikely to be Emperor acc. to post

Devotary - would probably use vote manip each cycle ; not GA ; unlikely to be Emperor from Tani's post

Mage - vote shift along with their vote ; possibly GA ; possibly Emperor if not GA

Bah, I'm gonna kill Tani. If anyone sees this, try to override my order but kill Tani itself. I'm worried I could be redirected

I'm super sorry Ive been inactive, my situation was as stated in thread. I'm not totally sure what's going on, so I'll hold off on using my skeleton and I'll make another one instead.

I hope you submitted a kill already. Most likely Mage will get exed, so someone besides him will be good. I'm going to actually go and pay attention

I will prolly go ahead and kill devo. He seems dangerous. (i sent it)

Vote has been cast!

Okay, fingers crossed on everything being fine and not being messed by a Redirect . I'm go ahead and roleblock Araris with my Vase then. Hope we finish it :)

Steel, if you're still on, use roleblock on someone probably Mage or Devo because it's lylo.

Fingers crossed!
