

To be alone with you, just you and I
Under the moon, neath the star-spangled sky
I know you're alive, and I am too
My one desire is to be alone with you

To be alone with you, even for just an hour
In a castle high, in an ivory tower
Some people don't get it, they just don't have a clue
They wouldn't know what it's like to be alone with you

They say the nighttime is the right time to hold each other tight
All worldly cares will disappear and everything will come outright

I wish the night was here, make me scream and shout
I'll fall into your arms, I'll let it all hang out
I'll hound you to death, that's just what I'll do
I won't sleep a wink 'till I'm alone with you

I'm collecting my thoughts in a pattern, moving from place to place
Stepping out into the dark night, stepping out into space

What happened to me, darling? What was it you saw?
Did I kill somebody? Did I escape the law?
Got my heart and my mouth, my eyes are still blue
My mortal bliss is to be alone with you
