(d) The home team must call in scores, or rain outs, to the newspapers and Webmaster,

(c) When the visiting team scores one or more runs to take the lead and the game called on darkness before the home team completes the inning shall be a suspended game.

Mercy Rule.

(d) The President may suspend the Mercy rule for special occasions, such as in an All-Star Game, special exhibition games or other situations.

(e) In case of an unusual game where a team has a lead of more than 10 runs before 5 innings have been played, the managers of both teams may agree with the Umpire-in-Chief to terminate the game sooner (example: after 3 innings). (f) If a regularly scheduled game needs to be postponed or relocated for reasons other than weather related, notice must be given 3 days prior to game time. The League President must grant approval for the relocation or postponement.

(c) 5 minutes before the starting time of any game, 2 line-up cards must be given to the umpires. At the same time, the umpires will be presented with their fees for the game. The starting time of the game will be dictated by the schedule. (Also see Rule 3-8.01).

(d) If a team does not have 9 roster players on the field 15 minutes after the official game starting time, that team shall forfeit.

(e) All players, managers and coaches must be in uniform. Injured players, bat boys, score keepers and sponsors may sit on the bench but cannot direct any remarks to opposing players or umpires.

3-5.01 - Forfeits.

(a) Fee: Each team must provide a one game forfeit fee (two umpires' fees) to the league due at the same time with entry/league fees. If team doesn't forfeit, fee is returned to team by either check or cash.

(b) Policy: If a team forfeits a regular or playoff season game, they are responsible for a forfeit fee to the umpires at the time of the game, even if they are the visiting team. The other team is awarded the win. Only the score of the game should be called in as 7-0.

(c) If a team forfeits its remaining games scheduled, previous games played count in the standings. The remaining games are deleted from the schedule.

(d) If a team forfeits, they are required to advance another forfeit fee to the League President prior to the next scheduled game.

ARTICLE 6 – PROTESTS

3-6.01 - Procedures. Using Major League Baseball Rule 4.19.

The coach must notify the League President in 24 hours or the Umpire in Chief if the President cannot be reached that the game is being protested. (c) The League President will rule on all protests.

(d) The automatic suspension rule for ejection from a game may be appealed to the League President within 8 hours. The President will rule on the suspension immediately and his decision on the matter will be final, no appeals. An appeal of an ejection in a double-header first game will require a ruling before the second game or the player is out. If a player is ejected from a game, he is automatically suspended for the next game.

ARTICLE 7 – SUSPENSIONS

3-7.01 – Suspensions.

(a) If any player is thrown out of a game, he must leave the field. He may not stay in the dugout. The player is also suspended from his teams next played game. If the player plays in the next game, then he will be suspended for 3 additional games and his team will forfeit the game he played in.

(b) If a manager or coach (acting in that capacity) is thrown out of a game, he must leave the field immediately. He is also automatically suspended from managing the next game. If his actions warrant an umpire, to write to the League President or Chief Umpire about unacceptable behavior, the League President may suspend him for one or more games.

(c) Any player or coach who harasses an umpire after the game has ended, (when umpire is leaving the field or he is at his car ready to leave), may be suspended for three or more games, at the discretion from the League President.

(d) Any player or coach that strikes, grabs, or assaults an umpire may be suspended from the League for life.

The starting pitcher in the game cannot be replaced once he started his warmup pitches. After the first pitch in the game any replacement of a player is a substitution.

(b) The Umpire-in-Chief and opposing manager must be notified prior to handing the line-up card to the umpire that this is occurring.

When the player arrives to enter the game both Umpire-in-Chief and opposing Manager must be notified and changes made to the line-up card. The player removed from the lineup card may re-enter the game as a substitute. However, the first pitcher must pitch to the first batter or his substitute and cannot be replaced except by a substitute.

ARTICLE 9 – OTHER RULES

Appendix 4C – FORCED SLIDE RULE

NCAA 8-4 Force-Play-Slide Rule

Force-Play-Slide Rule

SECTION 4. The intent of the force-play-slide rule is to ensure the safety of all players. This is a safety and an interference rule. Whether the defense could have completed the double play has no bearing on the applicability of this rule. This rule pertains to a force-play situation at any base, regardless of the number of outs.

a. On any force play, the runner must slide on the ground before the base and in a direct line between the two bases. It is permissible for the slider's momentum to carry him through the base in the baseline extended (see diagram).

Exception—A runner need not slide directly into a base as long as the runner slides or runs in a direction away from the fielder to avoid making contact or altering the play of the fielder. Interference shall not be called.

1) “On the ground” means either a head-first slide or a slide with one leg and buttock on the ground before the base.

2) “Directly into a base” means the runner’s entire body (feet, legs, trunk and arms) must stay in a straight line between the bases.

b. Contact with a fielder is legal and interference shall not be called if the runner makes a legal slide directly to the base and in the baseline extended (see diagram). If contact occurs on top of the base as a result of a “pop-up” slide, this contact is legal.

c. Actions by a runner are illegal and interference shall be called if:

1) The runner slides or runs out of the base line in the direction of the fielder;

2) The runner uses a rolling or cross-body slide and either makes contact with or alters the play of a fielder;

3) The runner’s raised leg makes contact higher than the fielder’s knee when in a standing position;

4) The runner slashes or kicks the fielder with either leg; or

5) The runner illegally slides toward or contacts the fielder even if the fielder makes no attempt to throw to complete a play.

PENALTY for 1-5—1) With less than two outs, the batter-runner, as well as the interfering runner, shall be declared out and no other runner(s) shall advance.

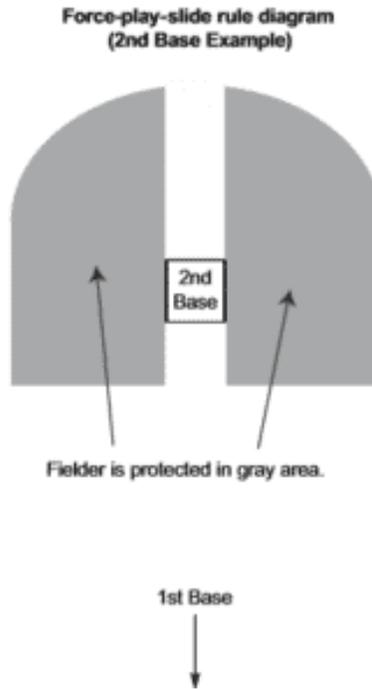

2) With two outs, the interfering runner shall be declared out and no other runner(s) shall advance.

3) If the runner’s slide or collision is flagrant, the runner shall be ejected from the contest.

Note 1: If the bases are loaded with no outs, a double-play attempt is made, and interference is called, all other runners must return to their original bases.

Note 2: On a force play, with a two-man umpiring system, if the plate umpire does not have a potential play at the plate, he should move toward the base to observe the runner going into second or third base. In this situation, the base umpire must follow the throw and may not see the true effect of the lead runner's action.

APPENDIX 4D – MLB SUSPENDED GAME RULES

Major League Suspended Game Rules (for reference)

7.02 (4.12) Suspended, Postponed, and Tie Games

(a) A game shall become a suspended game that must be completed at a future date if the game is terminated for any of the following reasons:

- (1) A curfew imposed by law;
- (2) A time limit permissible under league rules;
- (3) Light failure, malfunction of, or unintentional operator error in employing, a mechanical or field device or equipment under the control of the home club (e.g., a retractable roof, a tarpaulin, or other water removal equipment);
- (4) Darkness, when a law prevents the lights from being turned on;

(5) Weather, if a regulation game is called while an inning is in progress and before the inning is completed, and the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not retaken the lead; or

(6) It is a regulation game that is called with the score tied;

National Association Leagues may also adopt the following rules for suspended games. (If adopted by a National Association League, Rule 7.01(e) (Rule 4.10(e)) would not apply to their games.);

(7) The game has not become a regulation game (4½ innings with the home team ahead, or 5 innings with the visiting club ahead or tied);

(8) If a game is suspended before it becomes a regulation game, and is continued prior to another regularly scheduled game, the regularly scheduled game shall be seven innings in length. See the exception described in Rule 7.01(a) (Rule 4.10(a));

(9) If a game is suspended after it is a regulation game, and is continued prior to another regularly scheduled game, the regularly scheduled game shall be a nine-inning Game.

EXCEPTION: Optional Rules 7.02(a)(7), 7.02(a)(8) and 7.02(a)(9) (Rules 4.12(a)(7), 4.12(a)(8) and 4.12(a)(9)) for National Association Leagues shall not apply to the last scheduled game between the two teams during the championship season. A National Association League may adopt any of Rules 7.02(a)(7), 7.02(a)(8) and 7.02(a)(9) (Rules 4.12(a)(7), 4.12(a)(8) and 4.12(a)(9)) for its post-season games.

No game called because of a curfew (Rule 7.02(a)(1) (Rule 4.12(a)(1)), weather (Rule 7.02(a)(5) (Rule 4.12(a)(5))), a time limit (Rule 7.02(a)(2) (Rule 4.12(a)(2)) or with a tied score (Rule 7.02(a)(6) (Rule 4.12(a)(6))) shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game pursuant to Rule 7.01(c) (Rule 4.10(c)). A game called pursuant to Rules 7.02(a)(3) or 7.02(a)(4) (Rules 4.12(a)(3) or 4.12(a)(4)) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—Rules 7.02(a)(1) through 7.02(a)(5) (Rules 4.12(a)(1) through 4.12(a)(5))— shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. If a game is halted by weather, and subsequent light failure or an intervening curfew or time limit prevents its resumption, the game shall not be a suspended game. If a game is halted by light failure, and weather or field conditions prevent its resumption, the game shall not be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the six reasons specified in Rule 7.02(a) (Rule 4.12(a)).

Rule 7.02(a) Comment (Rule 4.12(a) Comment): The Major Leagues have determined that Rule 7.02(a) (Rule 4.12(a)) does not apply to any Wild Card, Division Series, League Championship Series or World Series games or for any additional Major League championship season game played to break a tie.

(b) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:

(1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds; or

(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled doubleheader between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule; or

(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in that city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;

(a) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or

(b) Immediately preceding the next scheduled doubleheader, if no single game remains on the schedule.

(4) Any suspended game that has progressed far enough to become a regulation game, but which has not been completed prior to the last scheduled game between the two teams during the championship season shall become a called game, as follows:

(a) If one team is ahead, the team that is ahead shall be declared the winner (unless the game is called while an inning is in progress and before the inning is completed, and the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not retaken the lead, in which case the score upon the completion of the last full inning shall stand for purposes of this Rule 7.02(b)(4) (Rule 4.12(b)(4)(i)); or

(b) If the score is tied, the game shall be declared a "tie game" (unless the game is called while an inning is in progress and before the inning is completed, and the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game, and the home team has not retied the game, in which case the score upon the completion of the last full inning shall stand for purposes of this Rule 7.02(b)(4) (Rule 4.12(b)(4)(ii)).

(5) Any postponed game, suspended game (that has not progressed far enough to become a regulation game), or tie game that has not been rescheduled and completed prior to the last scheduled game between the two teams during the championship season must be played (or continued, in the case of a suspended or tie game) to a completed regulation game, if the League President determines that not playing such game might affect post-season play, including eligibility for the post-season and/or home-field advantage for any post- season game.

Rule 7.02(b) Comment (Rule 4.12(b) Comment): The Major Leagues have determined that Rule 7.02(b) (Rule 4.12(b)) does not apply to any Wild Card, Division Series, League Championship Series or World Series games or for any additional Major League championship season game played to break a tie.

The National Association has determined that games shall not be rescheduled and played to a completed regulation game in accordance with Rule 7.02(b)(5) for the purpose of determining eligibility or home-field advantage for the post-season.

If a suspended game is to resume and no single game remains on the schedule, the National Association has determined that only a single game will be played after completing the suspended game.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup.

A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

Rule 7.02(c) Comment (Rule 4.12(c) Comment): If immediately prior to the call of a suspended game, a substitute pitcher has been announced but has not retired the side or pitched until the batter becomes a base runner, such pitcher, when the suspended game is later resumed may, but is not required to start the resumed portion of the game. However, if he does not start, he will be considered as having been substituted for and may not be used in that game.
