The Pierre Perron Memorial Continuing Education Grant

This recently instituted grant program in memory of Pierre Perron is to be established and maintained by the RCCO Halifax Centre. Pierre was a long-time member of the RCCO Halifax Centre, Professor of Music Education at Dalhousie University, and an active organist, choral conductor, and church musician based in Halifax. Pierre was a true believer and promoter of music education, and it is appropriate that this grant is created in the spirit of continuing education for endeavors such as organ, choral, and church music continuing education.

Criteria for Applying

The Pierre Perron Memorial Grant Program is open to all members of the RCCO Halifax Centre and will be administered by the Chair of the Scholarship Committee and it's peers.

Up to two (2) grants will be offered annually in the amount of and not exceeding $500.00 per grant application.

The applicant in applying must outline the need for financial assistance and also a description of the continuing education program that they will be attending.

The grants will be offered to applicants who are seeking continuing education in the areas of organ study, choral conducting study, and/or church music study in general.

The committee has the right to reduce and award an amount of funding to applicants.

The committee has the right to not offer grants within a calendar year at their discretion.
