

NAME: _____

YOU VS. WILD

Before Christmas we are going to work on a project using the Netflix series “You vs. Wild” with the survivalist Bear Grylls in which the audience makes key decisions to keep him alive and complete missions.

We will watch different chapters of the series and complete them trying to help Bear finish his missions.

The series is fun but what we are going to do is watch it to practice our English so we will do some exercises. This will be a team and individual work. You will have to take part in team activities and also do some individual exercises. This is going to be the first mark of the next term.

So, let's start now!!!

2.MAKING DECISIONS

From now on the different teams will take turns to choose the different options. We are going to build a different adventure with every choice so it is impossible to list them previously. Every time one of the teams has to make a choice, one representative of the team will sit at the computer to stop the action before the decision time has started. If the representative doesn't stop the action, the team will have a limited time for decision and if the team does not decide the videogame will decide instead. We will keep on playing until we finish our mission. In many cases if the decisions are not correct we have to cancel the mission.
