

Privacy Policy for Sudoku
Last Updated: March 7, 2026

JAY MISHRA INC ("we," "us," or "our") operates the sudoku mobile application. We understand the importance of personal information to you and are committed to protecting your privacy. This policy is designed to explain how we handle information when you use our application.

1. Data Collection and Use

sudoku is designed to be a pure, offline puzzle game.

Personal Data: We do not collect, store, or share any personally identifiable information (such as your name, email address, phone number, or contact list).

Usage Data: We do not track your app usage behavior, device identifiers, IP address, or geographical location.

No Third-Party SDKs: This application does not contain any third-party Software Development Kits (SDKs) used for collecting, analyzing, or tracking user data.

2. Data Storage

All game progress (such as your high score and current level status) is stored locally on your device. We do not have access to this local data, and this information is not transmitted to any external servers or the cloud.

3. Third-Party Services

Our application does not interact with or share data with any third-party services, including social media platforms, data analysis tools, or advertising networks.

4. Children's Privacy

Since we do not collect any form of personal information, sudoku is safe for users of all ages, including children.

5. Policy Updates

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. Any revisions will be posted on this page, and the "Last Updated" date at the top of the page will be updated accordingly.
