

Clever Reminder Privacy Policy

Clever Reminder is built as a free app. This service is provided at no cost and is intended for use as is. This page is used to inform visitors regarding the policies regarding the collection, use, and disclosure of Personal Information for all users of this service.

If the user chooses to use the application, then the user agrees to the collection and use of information in relation to this policy. The Personal Information collected is used for providing and improving the service. The users' information will not be used or shared with anyone except as described in this Privacy Policy.

Information Collection and Use

Information we automatically collect or is generated about you when using Clever Reminder:

1. Identifiers, such as your device information (such as model, brand, and operating system).
2. Device location information, such as your Device's GPS information when you use the Clever Reminder's features of Geolocation reminder. When you use Clever Reminder, we may process information about your actual location through GPS signals sent by a mobile device in order to obtain your location for the purposes of providing our Geolocation Reminder Service. We don't collect location information for the purpose of providing our service.
3. Information you generate when using the Services: You may provide Information as part of your use of the Services, including any information you provide when creating a note in the Services. We don't share this information with others.
4. Information regarding your use of the Services, such as app use information, and interactions with our team by email.

Information received from third parties:

- Information we receive from third-party platforms: when you register through a third-party account (such as a Google account), we receive Information that may include your username, email address, and profile picture.

Your data

Clever Reminder uses third-party vendors and hosting partners to provide the necessary software, networking, storage, and related technology required to run Clever Reminder. Although Clever Reminder owns the code, databases, and all rights to the Clever Reminder application, you retain all rights to your data. We will never share your personal data with a 3rd party without your prior authorization, and we will never sell data to 3rd parties. We transfer data with third parties necessary to our ability to provide our services, all of whom are GDPR-compliant, and provide the necessary safeguards required for the EU.

Security

Your trust in providing your Personal Information is valued, thus the developer strives to use commercially acceptable means of protecting it. But remember that no method of transmission over the internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure and reliable, and its absolute security cannot be guaranteed.

Links to Other Sites

This service may contain links to other sites. If a third-party link is clicked, the user will be directed to that site. Note that these external sites are not operated by the app. Therefore, it is strongly advised that the users review the Privacy Policy of these websites. The app has no control over and assumes no responsibility for the content, privacy policies, or practices of any third-party sites or services.

Children's Privacy

These services do not address anyone under the age of 13. The developer does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under 13. In the case it is discovered that a child under 13 has provided the app with personal information, the data is immediately deleted from the servers. It is asked that the parents of young users contact the developer so that the developer would be able to perform the necessary actions.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time. Thus, users are advised to review this page periodically for any changes. Any changes will be notified by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page. These changes are effective immediately after they are posted on this page.
