Comments:

- This was definitely a little step back for us as a team. Our 2nd and 3rd miles were too far off pace
- Last week we were faster than Genoa; this week it wasn't even all that close. There's a difference between saying you want to be at the top of the NBC and actually doing it - let's figure this out together.
- Very nice races from Seth, Andrew, and Josh. Your fitness level is finally coming back, and you all ran well today
- 1-5 gap of 1:29 is very solid; now we just need you all to start dropping time together
