The Jack Caldwell
"It's All About the Soul"
Memorial Award

Jack was a life-long Williamsville resident and a pillar of the community. He served on the WCUSD 15 School Board for 19 years. His influence helped shape the school district into the successful educational institution it is today.

Jack was also a local businessman who thought "outside the box" and was able to create lasting memories for those he worked for. Jack was a loyal family man and dedicated to the Arts. He showed us how to live life and love others.

The Jack Caldwell "It's All About the Soul" Memorial Award provides $500.00 for one graduating senior at Williamsville High School who has plans to further their education or career.

The Award will be granted to a graduate with the following criteria considered:

- Shows Good Citizenship/Community Service
- Demonstrates Patriotism (current or future military service with the understanding of the Constitution)
- Exhibits Good Character
- Has a passion for the Arts, Music, or Culinary Arts
- Must Outline Future Plans, Education, or Career
- Has NO GPA REQUIREMENTS

Awards will be paid directly to the graduate to use to further his/her education or career.

Please complete the application and have it returned to the Guidance Office by April 17, 2026.
