

Google Small Business Community

Meet the Moderators

Lizz

Lizz is the daughter of an entrepreneur, so small businesses have always had a special place in her heart, and she loves playing a role in helping them succeed. She brings her years of online community, blogging, and social media management experience to the community, and loves connecting people and seeing them flourish.

Dalilah

Dalilah is a graphic designer turned content creator. She's motivated by making people's lives better and finds the best reward in helping small businesses thrive online. She's worked with many female small business owners to create digital marketing and branding solutions that they can be proud of.

Brielle

Brielle is a community management guru who loves to meet new people and help small businesses. Her goal is to make sure that the Google Small Business Community is the best and most-welcoming community for small business owners. Like many of the members, Brielle is a dreamer who hopes to start a small business of her own one day.
