4) Description of Event

On August 16, 2024, the School of Applied Sciences and Technology (SAST) at Gujarat Technological University hosted an engaging Elocution and Debate Competition under the theme "Biotech Dialogues: Pioneering Viksit Bharat @2047." This event was part of the "Viksit Bharat Abhiyan," which envisions India's growth and development by 2047.

The competition saw active participation from students who showcased their oratory and debating skills, focusing on topics related to biotechnology, urbanization, and India's future. The elocution segment allowed students to present speeches on selected topics, highlighting the intersection of traditional knowledge with modern biotechnology, a vision for India in 2047, and the challenges and opportunities of urbanization in India.

The debate competition followed a modified Lincoln-Douglas format, where teams argued on assigned topics, presenting well-researched and articulate arguments. The competition was conducted in both English and Hindi, emphasizing clarity, content, delivery, and engagement.
