

Wix: Creating Members-Only Pages

Creating Members-Only Pages restricts access to specific pages.

Click on the “Menus & Pages” icon located on the left-hand side of the Wix Editor page.

The screenshot displays the Wix Editor interface. On the left, the 'Signup & Login' sidebar is visible, showing a 'Menus & Pages' icon. The main content area shows a page structure with a 'HOME' menu item and several 'ABOUT ME' and 'COURSES' sub-items. On the right, the 'Members & Access' settings panel is open, showing options for who can access the page. The 'Site members' option is selected, and the 'All members' radio button is also selected under the 'Which members can access this page?' section.

Who can access this page?

- Everyone
- Password holders
- Site members

Members who signed up to your site or customers who purchased a plan can access this page. Learn more

Which members can access this page?

- All members
All members, customers and site collaborators will have access.
- Specific members
Only chosen members will have access.

Members with roles
Give access to specific member roles.

Members with plan subscriptions
Monetize exclusive content to customers with a pricing plan.

Site collaborators

ePortfolio Support | High Impact Academic Partnerships
odu.edu/ails/eportfolio

Click the three-dot extended menu button. Select “Settings” and then the “Permissions” tab. Click the “Members Only” button.

A screenshot of the ePortfolio Studio permissions settings interface. It shows two main options: "All members" (unselected) and "Specific members" (selected). Under "Specific members", there are three toggle switches: "Members with roles" (off), "Members with plan subscriptions" (off), and "Site collaborators" (on).

All members
All members, customers and site collaborators will have access.

Specific members
Only chosen members will have access.

Members with roles
Give access to specific member roles.

Members with plan subscriptions
Monetize exclusive content to customers with a pricing plan.

Site collaborators
Site owner and collaborators always have access.

Choose to let either all members or only a few select members view the page.

I D E A FUSION

Old Dominion University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action institution.

Hit the ‘Manage site members’ button to go to the ‘Site Members’ dashboard.

Manage site members

From the dashboard, you can invite members, set contacts as members, set permissions for those members, add site roles, and more.

