My Name is Cameron and my major here at ODU is game development. In order to pursue my major I need to take a lot of math classes and designing classes. I love to play games that I thought I should start to make. I started out small building a obby game on roblox