Sarah: Hi, Todd.

Todd: Hey, Sarah. How are you?

Sarah: Good. How are you?

Todd: Not bad.

Sarah: So I heard you are from San Francisco.

Todd: That's right. Yeah, I was born there and I lived in the city for many years.

Sarah: Cool. What is _____ thing about your city?

Todd: Well, San Francisco has many interesting things, but the _____ thing is probably the architecture. There's lots of very unique buildings. And the _____ building is probably the Trans-America building. It's a building like a pyramid. It's nice.

Sarah: Well, that's really cool.

Todd: Uh-hmm.

Sarah: What is _____ area in San Francisco?

Todd: Well, it is very, very expensive. The _____ area is a place called Pacific Heights, and it's on the highest hill in San Francisco and it overlooks the Bay. It's a really, really beautiful place.

Sarah: Hmm.

Todd: That area by far has the best views of the city.

Sarah: Hmm, what is _____ place in San Francisco?

Todd: Well, actually _____ place is outside the city. It's a place called Muir Woods. And it has _____ trees in the world, and some of these trees are really old. They are _____ trees in North America. Some of them are over 2,000 years old.

Sarah: Wow. It sounds like some place I would like to see. So it sounds really expensive. Where is _____ place to live?

Todd: _____ place to live is a place called Sunset. And Sunset is on the west side, and the houses are kind of old and they're a little bit cheap. But one thing about Sunset is it has _____ view of the ocean, and you could watch the sunset every night. That's why it's called the Sunset area.

Sarah: Hmm. If I wanted to go there, when is _____ time to visit?

Todd: Well, _____ time is probably in the fall because that's when the weather is _____. It's not too cold, and it's not too hot. And it doesn't rain that much.

Sarah: So when would be _____ time to visit?

Todd: _____ time to visit would be probably February and March, because February and March are _____ and _____ months. So – well, March isn't that cold but sometimes it's wet, so it rains a lot.

Sarah: Wow. That sounds really great. I want to go there.

Todd: Yeah, you should. It's a great place.
