- Yellow classes are new course offerings and taught by AIS faculty and staff. Registration required.
- Students already registered for a Study Hall (pink) by day will remain in Study Hall. Another day may be added to take the place of a canceled class. New students may join study hall, even if not previously enrolled by registering.
- Green classes are reserved for students already enrolled in the class. No registration required.

*For Preschool cooking & Code+Cook: Videos will be sent in advance (by accessing your Cook+Code account via a login invitation) and may be watched at your convenience. No live interaction will take place. Parent aided activities may be done at any time.

++Students previously enrolled in the canceled Friday Culinary Arts+Kitchen Chemistry will be invited to “join” the videos for cooking and recipes. Please Register to confirm participation and receive the account invitation.

Updates:

*Engineering Roller Coaster will be split into two classes, at a day and time to be determined soon. IdeaLabs will have supply kits for each class. We will pick these up from Idea Labs and drop off on your doorstep the week of your class. A link will be sent for the live class instruction via their Zoom platform separately. More information to be sent out soon.

x Basketball moved from Thursdays to Wednesdays at 3:45pm.
