Tuesday April 12 - Concurrent Sessions:

For planning purposes, please click here to fill out a quick survey to indicate which of the following concurrent events you plan to attend, if any:

8:45 to 9:45 am:

- Mindfulness Morning begins promptly at 8:45 in Fisher (please be on time!)
- A brisk campus walk will leave from the McCaw lobby area of the Alumni Center
- Socializing only - coffee and continental breakfast will be available in Ford Gardens.

10:00 to 11:30 am

- Life Journey 2.0 with Dave Evans (in McCaw) NOTE - this session is designed for DCI Alumni to think about where they are - now that time has passed since they were in the program.
- Reflections on a life in the Creative Arts with Mark Applebaum (in Fisher) is open to current cohorts and alumni interested in Mark's story about switching gears and publishing his first book of musical scores. Mark's Ted talk is highly entertaining.

Covid-19 Policies

Please do not attend the Community Celebration if you are experiencing symptoms of upper respiratory illness.

As of April 4th, the Covid-19 policies for Stanford campus visitors have been updated. Individuals coming to campus after travel must adhere to the guidelines outlined here: <https://healthalerts.stanford.edu/covid-19/travelers> In general, fully vaccinated individuals coming from an international destination, must restrict activities (i.e., not come to shared spaces) until receiving a negative Day '0' PCR, Color, or rapid antigen test result. If in doubt, please wear a face mask.

Face coverings are no longer required, but continue to be strongly recommended, especially while indoors in close proximity to others. We will have disposable face masks available and encourage you to be conscious of space and other people's comfort levels.

If you test positive for COVID-19 within ten days of being on campus, please report it using the General COVID-19 Case Reporting Form and let DCI Staff know so that we can perform contact tracing amongst faculty, staff, guests and Fellows in attendance.

We look forward to seeing you at the DCI Community Celebration 2022!
