Oc story

It was a dark windy night as cars flew and the stars in the sky, people walking,singing,chanting, a group of people were trying to break into a building as they didn't know something was watching, not Batman it was something else.

"What the hell was that" said someone in the group

The others look at him

"What, did you see a ghost?" The other one said

But the person saw it again it wings not like a bird but a robot as it land on the building everyone look at him it's sharp claws creepy smiles the red X the gray hair jacket with a suit under with pointing needle tail as it's looks at the group

"Hello boys~" said R

The group panic and start shooting but he dodges the bullets as stab one guy and throws him and stabs another with his needle and switches his claws to a AR and shoots the two next to the door and leaves one alive as R rushes and grabs his neck hard and choking him

"So you try to break in here and didn't even notice me" said R

"Who…are…you" said the person gasping for air

"Oh me please called me R" R laughing as he spear the guy with his hand and pull back and as he drop the guy

INTRO
That me Ryan or Sd_R aka serial designation R, so you saw me killing these people for trying to break in a building, maybe a bit over killed but I'm getting ahead myself "switch slides showing the R crew logo" this is my crew the R crew and you are wondering."says why it called the R crew" well I'm glad you ask. Well even know I'm the leader well before I wasn't, a long long long time ago I saw a random elevator and went inside drop down to a random base as it was underground base all the stuff happened and bluh bluh shit happens but now I Well me lead my friend and my family going on crazy ass adventure some good some bad well that a other story for now so let's go back were I killed those guys.

A couple open the door and see R standing next of dead guys

“Oh uh hi.” said R looking at them and a course standing next to him as the couple screamed before they ran back

“Your welcom- ah shit.” said R ran off the building and flew away as he flew around the city and lands to alleyway and turns back to human and walks out of the alleyway and starts walking and went to a store to get some groceries as he gets called from V”

“Hello?” Said Ryan on the phone

“Ryan saw the news and really, should have hidden those bodies?” Said V on the phone

“Ah shit, okay I’m bad. I should’ve drop a portal and drop the body to the void but that on me.” said Ryan on the phone looking at the list of things

Switches to V side on the phone

“Are you getting the stuff.” said V as she helping Lilly and zilly with there homework

“Yea I’m getting the stuff.”said Ryan on the phone

“Also when you come back. can you help our daughters With their work” said V on the phone

*“*Okay i will, love you V.” said Ryan on the phone

“Love you too.” said V hanging up the phone and struggling on helping Lilly and zilly math questions and what is 2+2

Switching back to Ryan

Ryan got done with the list of stuff and starting to check out the grocery as the lady checking out the stuff Ryan look at the tv see the news of the body he left and couple talking to the reporters

“I think that person is a hero.” said the check out lady

Ryan looks at her

“Maybe he is.” said Ryan as the checkout lady was done he pay for the stuff and hold the groceries as he called his car it drove to him and parking next to him and throw the groceries in the car and closing the truck and hop in the car and drove back the base as drives he cranked the tunes and sing to it as he made back to the base and opens the rocks up drove in as it close and started going down as it did he parked grab the stuff started walking in the base as everyone greeted him as he says is hellos as everyone help him and putting in the kitchen which was a big kitchen as he had a button everything teleports to the fridge and walks out as Freddy walks to him

“So I heard the news” said Freddy

Ryan give him a look

“Jesus you too. look if those couple didn’t show up it be easy To hide the bodies but maybe I did left them there” said Ryan looking at Freddy as there walking to the main base

“Well i know you so yea, you forgot but I eased there mind” said Freddy smile

“You fucking man and black or something?” said Ryan

“Yes and don’t worry I hack the news network and erase the footage” said Freddy

Ryan sighed “thanks for doing that then, Wait I was going to do OH SHIT”*Ryan dash off and say to Freddy “nice talk, see you later Freddy!” Freddy see Ryan ran to his house inside the base

V see Ryan came in she smiles hug him as Ryan hug back as the raptor came but waiting for pats as Ryan look at it he pet his head

“Ahem” v said holding there daughters homework as Ryan went to help his girls plus V on the math problem

After solving the math problem and Ryan pulling V back before she attacked the paper it was late at night everyone rest up, the next morning Ryan wakes up make breakfast for the family as he cooks as cyn sneak up behind Ryan trying to scare him as he since her.

"You know I can see you, right?" said Ryan

“Damn it” “angry face” said cyn

“What do you want?” said Ryan

“I want to tell you that I saw something giggle” said cyn

“What the hell do you mean you saw something ?” Said Ryan

“I saw some drone and humans planing something evil big smile said cyn smiled

As cyn gives Ryan a picture of a group of worker drones and humans.

“So you sneak out at night and found this” said Ryan looking at her

“Yes indeed but not on earth giggle” said cyn

Ryan looks closer at the picture.

“Copper nine of all places?” said Ryan but as he looked cyn was gone and she left a paper of where they were locating V walk in the kitchen.

“V stretch her arms mmm a babe what that smell” said v as Ryan looks at the eggs as he forgot and burns them as he puts out the small fire and makes some egg again.

“Sorry I just got distracted by something ” said Ryan as continued cooking breakfast as the little disassembly drones woke up and came out for breakfast. As the family ate V was wondering what was wrong Ryan after breakfast everyone got ready for today as Ryan puts on his outfit his jacket a black shirt and pants his shoe as V was blow drying her hair she asked Ryan a question.

“Who were you talking to in the kitchen this morning” said v as Ryan look at her

“Well it was an old friend cyn. she came up to me this morning telling me about a group of worker drone and human planning something” said Ryan as v know she hate her

“Ugh cyn Yk I don’t trust that creepy son of a bitch Ryan. she dramatized me when I was a maid” said V mad

“So you have to deal with that Ryan even know she can't be trusted” said V as Ryan nod

“I will go and check it out and maybe ask some drone there about it okay” *said Ryan as v sigh and give Ryan a kiss on a cheek and it was a reminder don’t anything stupid as she smiles as he smiles and he kisses her cheek back as they exit the room.*

Ryan was getting his gear ready and opened the portal to copper nine as he brought N with him as they both walked into the portal and now in copper nine as portal closes.

COPPER NINE
Used to be company building by jcjhson in SPACEEEEEE but got blown up by the solver and killed every human in the planet only leaving worker drones and making their home. Well It didn’t last long until disassembling drones started killing them but now we’re friends.

“N smell the air and happy sigh ahh good to be home” said N happily as Ryan transformed to SD_R

“It sure is to be back but let's not get nostalgic here and focus on the mission” Said Ryan as N nods as they both take to the sky as their wings glide in the sky as they fly around copper nine as they land to some drones.

Ryan went up to two drones as N talks to the others

“Ahem excuse me, have you seen these worker drones and these people” said Ryan as he showed the picture of them but they shook their heads no as Ryan sigh told them “have a nice day I guess” he walked off as he came back to Ryan he had no dice with the other drones either.

“Sigh is okay let’s find more worker drones and maybe they can tell us if they find these assholes” said Ryan

“Maybe we check door base 1” said N as he gives the idea to Ryan as he nods and they hit the sky again as they fly down and walk up to the base door 1 as Ryan knocks and the shield door opens and the eye of a drone looks at them.”

“Can I help you two or you're going to kill us?” Said the drone

“No we’re not, we're here to ask some questions about some drone working with humans,have you see any weird activity happening” said Ryan to the drone

“Hmmmm no I haven’t see nothing now good day” said the drone as he shuts the Shield door

Ryan was having enough with this shit and teleported inside and beat up the guy and walked to the control center and pressed the button as the door opened and N walked in as Ryan shut it.

*“N looks at Ryan with not cool look did you have to do that” said N*

“What? he wasn’t going to let us in, so maybe I have to use the hard way n was still giving that look okay fine I’m sorry I have to use the hard way happy?” Said Ryan as N nod siming

They continue walking down as they talk to other drones still no dice went to the school and ask everyone there but no dice still so they were going to give up but Ryan looks at the picture and sees a dress that seems familiar and his Brian clicks.

“I know who it is” said Ryan and shows N the picture and he gasps as they both nod and stand up and walk to lizzy.

Lizzy was talking to thad and her other friends as Ryan and N take cover behind the door lizzy walk out the cafeteria and Ryan grab her mouth as he silent take down her as Ryan carried her on his shoulder as N hold Ryan shoulder as Ryan use instant transmission back to the base as they came back they went to the investigation room and put lizzy on the chair and tied her up as Ryan sat on the chair waiting for her to wake up.

"Lizzy woke up and looked around the room and lock eyes with R ugh… Ryan? what going on and why am I tied up" said Lizzy confused

"Well I found this picture of you with this group of people throw the picture on the table as lizzy looks at it So where were you on that day, hm?" said Ryan

Lizzy looks at it and gives a loud sigh and look at Ryan

"Okay. I was with those drones as they were talking about well I don't what they were saying but I know i was there and thought they were in a group so i lean in
As some humans show up and one of them has a suitcase with him and uh maybe didnt care or pay attention but I did see them shake hands and they walk off and that's all I know" said lizzy looking back at Ryan as he was a bit mad even though she doesn't pay attention to shit.

"Sigh so do you have to make me do the hard way" said Ryan as lizzy knew he was going to do as she tried to break free but Ryan put his hand on her as they froze in place as Ryan went inside in her mind.

Ryan controlled a bug as he went up to the group that Lizzy was in as he crawled there and got closer to hear.

"Are they almost here?" Said someone

"Look we gonna to make this easy get the stuff and walk off and whatever you do don't fucking tell a soul or I will killed you myself" said the other drone but the all stand still as some black mask humans walk to the group as they both stop as one of them hold the suitcase up and one of the drone walk up and give them money and he grabs the suitcase and one of the human said.

"Deal is done, have fun with your "weapon" and when we come back I wanna see waste land gone so we can start out plans" said the human as they walk off spawning a portal as they all walk in it and close it behind them and the drones walk off as lizzy follows them.

Ryan exits out of a lizzy mind as they both unfroze as she takes a deep breath back as she looks back at him.

"Jesus, did you go inside my mind? like you should ask first!" said lizzy as she was mad

"Well if you pay attention to what they were saying I won't have to use that on you but you forced my hand" said Ryan as he untied her and she stood up as she sighs folding her arms

“So can I leave now?” Said lizzy

“No you're staying here with us” said Ryan as transformed back to being human as he opened the door for lizzy as she walked out of the room as he did to.

Later the day everyone was in a meeting as Ryan went over the story of the people and drone making the deal as everyone nodded and after the meeting cyn stand by Ryan giving him a look.

“giggle see cyn was right happy face” said cyn

“Okay you were right all along then here a mango” said Ryan pulling out a mango as Cyn jump around happy as he throw it she launch at it and eats it

The plans were sent as everyone gets ready and lizzy tell where they were and telling the truth as the crew gotten ready and they all walked in to the portal and close it as lizzy stand back and watch Ryan’s daughters.

“So is everyone ready to shut shit down” said Ryan

“YES WE ARE!” Said the crew as everyone walked to the location and got there they sneak on the roof and Ryan look inside of the building as the drones were talking and planning as Ryan hold everyone on standby as he drops down quietly as he sneak up on a guy grab him pull him back kill him and land the body down as the team were still in hold Ryan crouch walk as he listened in to the conversation.

“Okay everyone, listen up we have company but don’t worry if we see any of those people we know what to do okay so if you see anything weird kill it” said the drone leader as laughs and everyone else walks around as Ryan tells the team to come as they drop down, look down and look at everyone.

“Let’s do this shit.” everyone nod and drop down and the drones saw it as everyone kicking there ass as ryan killed one or two or three and shoot another one with a rocket launcher hand and slide one in half as Ryan sees the leader escape as he teleport in front of him and round house kick him as he flew far hitting a stairs rail as Ryan walks to him and pick him up by the neck.

“So you're that, son of bitch, that I saw.” said Ryan, holding him by the neck.

“…..you don’t know nothing…ack” said the drone getting choked but he slimed and used his finger to form a solver as he kicked Ryan and pushed him back.

“Eh so that the weapon solver huh” said Ryan

“Yea and now your gonna to die with it” said the drone as he attacked Ryan but he transformed to SD_R and weaved as he miss knee his stomach as he threw him to the ground hard and as his hand he rips out the drone heart and crush it as he dies as the others look scary as shit and start to retreat but got stop someone

“Hello boys happy face” said cyn as she used her solver to spawn spike as it hits all the drone in the heart killing them as she giggles

“Thanks I guess” *said Ryan as cyn silme as she walks to him and Ryan looks away and give cyn head pats as her eyes said*yippe

The crew look around for the case as Rygirl finds it and she hands it to Ryan as he opens it.

“So they given the solver to killed people with” said Ryan looking at the necklace puts it back it lock it up as they did it,Freddy spawned a portal as everyone was ready to leave also put a lot of c4 to blow up the place as everyone leases Ryan looks at a camera and shoots it and walk in the portal as it close the whole place explode and leaving nothing but someone was watching.

A person saw what happened he was piss

“GOD DAMN IT!*Slam on his deskthose retards can’t even get the memo and get killed but whatever I can show those R bastards something they never see but it will take some time to do and one there ready we will kill every R crew member and burn all thing down” said the mysterious man as he laughs evil it’s echo goes across the hallway as it goes to a room filled with disassembly drones as one turns on with a X in there eyes.
