1- "Sir! Sir, can you hear us? It's Captain Y!"

2- "I hear you loud and clear Y, where's X?"

1- "He's out with some of the grunts re-capturing our lost legendaries."

2- "How's the base holding up over there?"

1- "We've recovered your Giratina, nothing else yet."

2- "Any info on where I am? Or how I'm here?"

1- "After running a scan we discovered that the professor's time machine sent you to a separate dimension. Once we recover Dialga and Palkia we should be able to return you home."

2- "What's going on with my rival?"

1- "They've beaten the champion and are still chasing us with the police."

2- "I've been thinking. If we can find a way to link this world to ours we could make our operation huge! There's so many unique people with powers and abilities here! We'd be unstoppable. There's even a group of sentient Pokemon!"

1- "I'd be careful, don't get yourself hurt before we get you back in power."

2- “I wouldn’t dream of it. Team Soul shall not lose, goodbye for now.

Tell Sir. Ghast and Captain X I haven’t lost faith in them.”
