

El Barrio Bikes CODE OF CONDUCT

El Barrio Bikes is a community group that consists of residents and service providers that work to promote cycling for health, safety and fun in and around Harlem . El Barrio Bikes works to develop, promote and execute recreational cycling which promotes inclusivity and works to eliminate obstacles for biking in East Harlem. We build confidence and enthusiasm around biking through events, programs, and advocacy! El Barrio Bikes strives to create a cycling community that promotes inclusivity through events that are accessible to all interested and free of cost.

El Barrio Bikes also supports a culture which is welcoming to all cyclists who are willing to participate and supporters/partners. El Barrio Bikes aims to reduce the risks for members when on the road through having bike leaders trained to lead community events/rides which is conducive to good relations between cyclists and other road users. To achieve this El Barrio Bikes Leaders aim for all members to follow these guidelines:

- Wear a helmet
- Wear a mask, if requested by ride leader
- No headphones
- Cyclists stop at all red lights and stop signs
- Be predictable and always indicate your intentions. Teach riders the symbols and use them and pass them down verbally and through hand signals for all riders
- Warn other riders of safety hazards
- At intersections stay in the queue behind the cars rather than rolling up the inside
- Stay highly visible with the use of lights and clothing
- When on the road or at an event it is an important part of our culture that members acknowledge one another. We always start with a community check in.
- Be Courteous to fellow cyclists, motorists and pedestrians.
 - Recognize that as a participant in El Barrio Bikes events/activities that you represent El Barrio Bikes to other cyclists, motorists, government officials and the general public.
 - Avoid confrontation with motorists, other cyclists or pedestrians even if they are in the wrong.
- Children under 18 are welcome on most rides but must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Youth participants must be able ride a bike attached to their parents or their own bike without training wheels. Certain challenging rides may be designated for adults only.

The code of conduct which follows seeks to further describe how El Barrio Bikes seeks to encourage all participants including supporters/partners:

El Barrio Bikes CODE OF CONDUCT

Purpose
