

Heh heh, yay another map... Please don't kill me! So basically, I was gonna rehost this map, then forgot, until someone finished a part and I was like "no wait, the only reason this was on hold was because the description wasn't working and I got really mad! And this is a really good idea and I don't want the only lo map to go to waste!!" (Plus people weren't getting their parts done so I'll have to work on that-) So yeah now here's this.

"Just carry oooon,"
She slowly gets up, wounded
"And the shadows, will never find youuu"
She looks up in horror as realizing her fellow silk wings are burning

2- lo is running through the plains in apocalypse savanna, dodging attacking HiveWings and flamesilk falling from the sky

3- A HiveWing bites her and she immediately scratches them, roaring

4- She looks up as she hopes it won't end like this (flashback slowly starts at instrumentals)

(Use hive background)

5- Young lo is wrestling with a young Swordtail, rolling around in the hive school (Silkworm hall)

6- The HiveWings yell at them for “damaging the hive” (use the HiveWings in the ref for this)

7- Io protests to them that they were doing nothing and the HiveWings go into attack position

8- The HiveWings go zombie eyes, and Wasp starts speaking threats from inside them (The main one is the first HiveWing from the ref)

9- Io steps back slowly, along with her terrified brother, and they scurry off, with Wasp right behind them

10- Io attacks the main HiveWing, who growls, Io and Swordtail fly out of the hive (show “The hives” background)

10 part two- Io is older now and she is hiding in the tall savanna grass while HiveWings fly overhead. She growls

11- She flies up at top speed and flies toward the passing HiveWings

12- The HiveWings turn toward her pale moon eyes. They snarl and lunge for her. She slashes one across the snout. She retreats, injured and crashes into the cicada hive library (Show outside the library background)

13- She looks around, stunned, and sees the cicada hive Chrysalis (Ruby, Cabbage, Gypsy, all look surprised)

14- She tells them about how she can’t trust HiveWings in control anymore and they all nod

15- She talks about how the SilkWings could reclaim their own throne, like when Monarch and Sequoia ruled

16- She talks about how she’s seen all the HiveWings go zombie eyes when she was younger and Gypsy nods her head in agreement, she has as well

17- They ask her if she would like to join and she says that she and her brother would like to join

18- She flies off to find Swordtail and finds him with Blue looking in horror at the metamorphosis cocoon (use hive background)

19- Luna screams as the fire envelops her. Blue yells out to her. Io tried to think of Clearsight and her husband Sunstreak would’ve done with a flamesilk, then shakes her head

20- She grabs Blue and takes him to the next level of the Hive, HiveWings after them. She lets him out on her silk thread while she fights the HiveWings. She is knocked out.

21- Much later, she is running from the HiveWings, and runs into The Poison Jungle. She wakes up and sees Swordtail, Blue, Cricket, and Sundew. She first hisses at Cricket, but settles down.
(Use poison jungle background, with small brown huts in the background)

22- She sees Queen Sequoia making plans, but didn't know how to help. Later Sundew walks in, telling Hazel something. Hazel gasps and gathers supplies

23- As everyone prepares to go to the distant kingdoms, Io overhears that SilkWings can go under control of the othermind, she decides to stay behind

(Back to present, hive apocalypse background)

24- Io puts her talons over the blazing sunset, getting weak. She thinks of her friends and her brother and continues to fight for all.

Outro (open!!)- She slashes a HiveWing, tears rolling down her cheek
