

Narrative Project Rubric- Due October 15, 2019

Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequence. (W.6.23; RL.6.3)

Standard	4	3	2	1	Score and Feedback
Use elements of a narrative writing to develop a real or imagined experience. (W.6.23) (Exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, resolution)	Five plot elements included.	Four plot elements included.	Three plot elements included.	Two or fewer plot elements included.
Engage and orient the reader by establishing a context and introducing characters. (W.6.23a)	Beginning of the story engages the reader and provides 8-10 details about the setting and characters.	Beginning of the story engages the reader and provides 5-7 details about the setting and characters.	Beginning of the story engages the reader and provides 1-4 detail about the setting and characters.	No information about the setting and characters is provided.

Determine a theme or central idea of a text and how it's conveyed through particular details. RL.6.2

Standard	4	3	2	1	Score and Feedback
Identify a theme and support claim with relevant textual evidence.	Identify the theme of your story and provide three pieces of textual evidence.	Identify the theme of your story and provide two pieces of textual evidence.	Identify the theme of your story and provide one piece of textual evidence.	Theme is not identified and/or no pieces of textual evidence is provided.

4= 95%

3=85%

2=75%

1=65%

Protagonist:

Antagonist:

Setting:

Plot:

Exposition:

Rising action:

Climax:

Falling Action:

Resolution:

The theme of my narrative is...

Textual evidence of my theme:

1-

2-

3-
