

Member for Parramatta Asking For Parents To Complete Survey On Private Tutoring

Andrew Charlton MP, Member for Parramatta is asking parents in his electorate to complete a survey on private tutoring and coaching. The purpose of the survey is to add to his understanding of private tuition by learning from the experience of principals, teachers and parents.

If you are interested in completing this survey please click on this link:

<https://www.andrewcharlton.com.au/community/tutoring-survey/>