Seven Steps

TOWARD DEVELOPING A REMARKABLE TEAM

- 1.* Assemble a team of doers. If a person selected for the team turns out not to be a good fit, take quick action to correct the choice.
- 2.* Set priorities, and make sure all team members have a common understanding of them.
- 3.* Let the team do their job. Avoid micromanaging.
- 4.* Knock down barriers, such as political and resource obstructions, that are keeping team members from accomplishing their goals.
- 5.* Express gratitude frequently for work well done.
- 6.* Take the heat for any team mistakes without transmitting heat down the chain.
- 7.* Sit back and "bask in the glory" of the team's accomplishments.
