

WazirX Exchange Review

WazirX Overview

A WazirX exchange review reveals that WazirX is a centralized cryptocurrency exchange based in India. This company was launched in March 2018 by a team made of Nischal Schetty, Sameer Mhatre, and Siddharth Menon. The company offers a system that allows users not only to trade digital assets but also to buy and sell cryptocurrencies such as bitcoin, bitcoin cash, litecoin, dash and many more. The exchange website claims that the platform is not only for professional traders but also for first-time investors as it allows wire transfer deposits. Nevertheless, credit card deposits are not allowed on the platform.

Regarding security, WazirX seems to offer regular security audits to ensure a highly secured platform. This has been represented by their security score received. The security score is C, rated by Mozilla at the Observatory test, which is in line with the global industry average. Furthermore, the WazirX exchange platform can be used on all known operating systems, including the web and mobile web, Android, iOS, macOS and Windows.

In regards to the fees, the exchange charges 0.25% to takers and 0.10% to makers which is according to the average fee of the crypto market. Additionally, WazirX has been issuing WRX which is a digital coin created by the exchange. The company claims to create a maximum of 1 billion WRX. However, this Indian cryptocurrency exchange has decided to offer for free 150 million (15%) coins to early adopters and traders who decide to sign up early.
