I really enjoyed Redemption in TNG as it was a great story with lots of space action thrown in (plus you get to see data as captain and various new ships). I loved thr visitor in DS9, one of the only episodes in the series that genuinely moved me. A joint first for me in DS9 was in the pale moonlight. It you recall it's when sisko tried to get the romulans into the war. Great mix of good actors, treachery and the battle within your own conscience to do the right thing. It showed a different side to sisko...Oh and it was garak heavy which is always great!

Josh Utley

TNG Season 2 Episode 9 Measure of a Man Special edition version.

Why is there no LIVE TV special event on CBS for Star Trek's 50th anniversary? UPN did it for the 30th. 20 years later and I'm disappointed.
